LATE FEE PETITION FORM
The Ohio State University - Office of the University Registrar

To appeal a Late Fee that has been assessed to your Statement of Account, you should complete the information below. In addition to your explanation of why your feel your petition should be considered, you should provide any additional documentation that may be relevant to your request. Example of this could include information related to medical/illness or a family emergency. If you believe the Late Fee is the result of university error, you must identify the office you believe erred and any person(s) involved. A supporting letter from the department on their letterhead should be included, if possible. NOTE: You are responsible for this fee! You should pay all fees by your due date to avoid a hold or being dropped from classes. If your petition is approved, a refund will be applied to your account.
