

Student View of Online SEIs—Also see the FAQ at <http://www.sei.osu.edu>

Students access online SEIs by logging in to their SIS Student Centers, available by clicking on the “My Student Center” link on Buckeye Link (www.buckeyelink.osu.edu).

The screenshot displays the 'Vyas's Student Center' interface. On the left, under the 'Academics' tab, the 'Enrollment' section is highlighted with a red circle, and the 'My Class Schedule' link is pointed to by a red arrow. The main content area shows 'This Week's Schedule' with a table of classes. On the right, there are sections for 'Holds', 'To Do List', 'Enrollment Dates', and 'Advisor'.

The student then clicks on the “My Class Schedule” link.

On the resulting page, the evaluation column may contain a red “no” symbol, indicating that a class is ineligible for SEIs.

See <http://www.ureq.ohio-state.edu/ourweb/scansurvey/sei/faqs.html#alluse> for details on excluded classes and instructors.

Note that the evaluation column does not appear early in the term, but only during the active SEI period for that class, which is based on overall range of the start and end dates of its meeting patterns.

See <http://www.ureq.ohio-state.edu/ourweb/scansurvey/sei/faqs.html#activetime> for details.

If the Evaluation button is grayed out, the student has already submitted online SEIs for all instructors attached to that class number.

Clicking the Evaluate button next to the instructor's name brings up the SEI form, shown on the next 3 pages.

Student Evaluation of Instruction

Childers, Terri - PHYSICS 131 - Recitation

Please evaluate the instructor named above and the part of the course taught by that instructor. The results of the SEIs are reported back to instructors and their departments. They are important tools for giving feedback and are taken seriously. Please give thoughtful responses to the items on the form, as well as any additional items requested by the instructor. Mark the appropriate response by clicking on the circle.
