The Recipients of the Distinguished Service Awards

CHRISTINE Y. CONAWAY

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

"... she made her stand with loyalty, dedication and sincerity—most of all sincerity."

This quote from an Ohio State Lantern editorial reflects the attitude which guided Christine Y. Conaway in her twenty-three years as Dean of Women. During her tenure, Mrs. Conaway was recognized nationally as a leader in the field of student personnel administration. She served as president of the National Conference on College Fraternities and Sororities, vice president of the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors, and member of the executive committees of the American College Personnel Association and of Alpha Lambda Delta.

Mrs. Conaway received her Bachelor's degree from Ohio State in 1923 and her Master's degree in 1942. She was awarded the honorary degree, Doctor of Humane Letters, from Otterbein College in 1957. As an undergraduate, she was president of the Women's Self Government Association and of her sorority, Pi Beta Phi, and was also a member of Mortar Board.

As Dean of Women, Mrs. Conaway was in daily contact with individual women, responding to their interest and needs in the areas of housing, sororities, honor societies, and organizations. She excelled in the individual and group counseling of women, her primary area of responsibility, and was devoted to the challenge of helping young women develop the capacity for self-government and grow steadily toward mature womanhood.

Indicative of her civic and professional involvement is her favorite quotation by Kahil Gibran, "You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give."

JACOB E. DAVIS

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Devoted alumnus and trustee, humanitarian, respected counselor in matters of University policy

Jacob E. Davis served with great distinction from 1961 to 1967 as a member and chairman of the Board of Trustees of The Ohio State University. His impressive qualifications for trustee service included scholarship, as Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Ohio State and law graduate of Harvard; public service, as judge, representative to the Ohio General Assembly and the U. S. Congress, and official of the Navy Department; corporate expertise, as an executive—now president—of the Kroger Company; and civic leadership, as the generating force behind a variety of good works in Cincinnati, his home community.

While his ability has projected Mr. Davis into high office in all that he has undertaken, his concern for the welfare of his fellow man has meant that understanding and compassion have always been the partners of authority and power.

As a University trustee, his service was distinguished by a total commitment and a vigorous personal style drawn from his great store of enthusiasm, dedication, and courage. He understood the unique and vital place of universities today. Independent of mind and spirit himself, he appreciated well those essential conditions of freedom which must be present if the pursuit of truth is to flourish in a university setting.

Jacob E. Davis has been a devoted trustee, an involved participant in University affairs, an initiator of support who has invested unselfishly of himself and his substance in order that his alma mater might achieve its full promise.

MYLIN H. ROSS

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Dean of Men by title but Dean for Men in practice

Mylin H. Ross, Ohio State's second Dean of Men, served his alma mater for twenty years, fifteen as Dean of Men. A man of sterling character and integrity, Dean Ross exemplified unselfish service and a dedicated concern for the young men who came to this University.

Over the years, students references to Dean Ross were ones of friendship, loyalty, and respect, as well they should have been. He was "in tune" with each student generation, aware of its needs and concerns, and ever willing to work with students in building a stronger, richer campus experience. He reveled in their joys and shared in their troubles. His patience, understanding, and fairness won the admiration of students, faculty, and fellow deans.

Dean Ross earned his Bachelor's and Master's degrees at Ohio State and was president of his fraternity, Phi Gamma Delta. As Dean, he was selected by students for membership in all three men's honorary organizations. Following service during World War II as a naval gunnery officer, he served successively as principal of Franklinton Elementary and Highland Avenue Elementary Schools in Columbus.

A native of Lebanon, Ohio, Dean Ross was honored there in 1958 as "Lebanon's outstanding citizen of national prominence." His service to his church, community, and professional organizations has been in leadership roles and reflects his devotion to high principles.

To Our New Alumni:

Welcome, a warm welcome, to the ranks of the alumni of The Ohio State University. Back in 1978 there were six alumni—new and untested. This small group has grown in 1968 to a body of more than 156,000 who have received degrees here, and our loyal Ohio State University Association has built the second largest organized constituency that exists among universities today.

The modern alumnus is a dedicated servant of education. The fruits of a good education—the critical mind, the discerning spirit, the higher values, the sense of commitment, and the privilege of service—are exemplified in tens of thousands of our products.

In a very real sense, the alumni are members of the family and full-fledged partners in the enterprise—in Ohio, in the nation, and throughout the world.

What can you do for the University? There seems to be general agreement on four major services which alumni can be counted on to render: 1) the ambassadorial service of representing Ohio State well wherever they go; 2) the service of strengthening Ohio State's resources through participation in the Development Fund; 3) the recruiting service of well-qualified students to Ohio State; and 4) the advisory service of strengthening Ohio State's role in society.

A great university is composed of many diverse people and many diverse ideas; so is society as a whole—and our alumni are the people best able to provide the vital link between our campus and its environment. With your assistance, we cannot fail to meet this challenge.

The University extends to you a year's free membership in the Association and with it will come automatically a subscription to THE MONTHLY, a magazine devoted to the task of helping you "keep in touch" with our exciting pursuit of human excellence.

Congratulations to you—and to your families and friends. You are joining a great family, for Ohio State is permanent among so many impermanencies. Your University is something to come back to—growing ever more rich and mellow in spirit.
Sincerely,

WILLIAM E. KNEPPER
President
