POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate
(Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny rebe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time.

Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème. So, too, the poet. Do you feel it? If so, I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school.

In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and others over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I'll never escape rhythms from the Nursery, up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gustavus Ignatius, Jove, and the sisters. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons". St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go, leave my soul to the company store.

You've been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Vola, Vola, Vola. Contarre, Vola, Vola, Vola. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying, lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours, that leaves hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steersage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—every, President Kirwin, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work, those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I am certain clearly never seen the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe, and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago. Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and miracle! My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history. Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Bountiful Ohio, in dreams again I see. Views of what meant to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field.

Men (and women) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the road, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Sceptor Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.

So many of us would not be here for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise. And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.

Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help. We, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mawn, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you. Now, even though this ceremony means we've been weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day, Summer's heat, and winter's cold. The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How from thy friendship, O-Oh-O We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and on another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again. Congratulations.

Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio
Graduates and guests led by Sarah Lewis Jones

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Recessional

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, on December 15 at 5:30 p.m.

President Gee looks forward to personally congratulating graduates on the stage after the class recessional has concluded.
Richard Hollingsworth, vice president for Student Life at The Ohio State University, will retire in January 2009 after a 35-year career spent improving the lives of the university's students.

Having grown up in the University District, he attended Ohio State, earning his bachelor's degree in 1973. He received a JD degree from Capital University Law School in 1981.

Throughout his career, Mr. Hollingsworth has worked tirelessly to promote character development and help students realize their full potential. He has been an innovative leader in creating and shaping programs and services to support the best possible learning environments. Committed to diversity and inclusiveness, he has been a major contributor to numerous university initiatives to recruit, retain, and support underrepresented students. He has championed student leadership development and promoted sexual assault prevention and survivor support. He was instrumental in establishing the Code of Student Conduct and has been a leading proponent of good sportsmanship and responsible celebration.

He served in a number of roles in student life governance until his appointment in 2000 as associate vice president for Student Affairs. In 2006, he was named vice president for Student Affairs (now Student Life), after serving in an interim capacity for nearly a year.

As vice president, he has been responsible for 30 departments, including University Housing, Campus Dining Services, Student Health Services, the Ohio Union (including student organizations, leadership and service programs, and Greek life), Recreational Sports, Counseling and Consultation Service, Career Connection, the Multicultural Center, Office for Disability Services, Student Advocacy Center, Off-Campus Student Services, the Parent Association, the Blackwell Inn, and the Schottenstein Center.

An accomplished and eloquent public speaker, Mr. Hollingsworth has delivered more than 6,200 lectures, workshops, and training sessions during his tenure on topics that address personal and organizational effectiveness. He has delivered the welcome remarks at the last 83 commencement ceremonies, a role he has played since autumn of 1987.

In addition to his work as an administrator, Mr. Hollingsworth has been an adjunct faculty member in the College of Education and Human Ecology since 1981, teaching graduate courses in higher education and student affairs, and undergraduate courses in leadership development. He plans to continue teaching at Ohio State in his "retirement."
William E. Evans
DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

William E. Evans is director and chief executive officer of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and holder of the St. Jude Professorship and Endowed Chair of Pediatrics at the University of Tennessee Colleges of Medicine and Pharmacy.

For the past 30 years, his research at St. Jude has focused on the pharmacogenomics of anticancer agents in children, with emphasis on treatment of acute lymphoblastic leukemia. He is the recipient of three consecutive NIH MERIT (Methods to Extend Research in Time) Awards from the National Cancer Institute.

Dr. Evans earned his BS and PharmD degrees from the University of Tennessee, before joining the university faculty in 1974 and the St. Jude faculty in 1976. From 1986 to 2002, he served as chair of St. Jude’s pharmaceutical department and, from 1983 to 1991, as chair of the University of Tennessee’s College of Pharmacy, Department of Clinical Pharmacy. He is the first non-physician to serve as director of St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital.

He has authored more than 300 articles and numerous book chapters and has edited several textbooks and scientific journals. He is recognized by ISI as a “Highly Cited Scientist.” In addition, Dr. Evans has given more than 200 invited presentations in 20 countries. His professional contributions include service on several scientific advisory boards, including the Board of Scientific Counselors for the National Cancer Institute of the National Institutes of Health and the International Advisory Council for the Singapore Agency of Science, Technology, and Research.

His national awards include the Therapeutic Frontiers Award of the American College of Clinical Pharmacy, the Volwiler Award from the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, the Tyler Award from the American Pharmacists Association, and the Yaffe Lifetime Achievement Award in Pediatric Pharmacology. He is a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and was elected to the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences in 2002.
Anne Kittredge Jeffrey
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Anne Kittredge Jeffrey has served the central Ohio community as a dedicated volunteer for more than five decades. She currently serves as chair of The Ohio State University-Harding Behavioral Health Board and as co-chair, with her husband, Robert “Tad” Jeffrey, of The Ohio State University Medical Center’s “Power to Change Lives” campaign.

After attending Skidmore College and Columbia University, Mrs. Jeffrey moved to Columbus with her husband in 1956 and began working as a volunteer at Columbus State Hospital. She joined the Mental Health Association and has campaigned for better mental health services in Columbus ever since. She was a founding member and first president of the Columbus Area Community Mental Health Center and founding member of the Franklin County Alcohol, Drug Addiction, and Mental Health Services and the Community Shelter Board.

In 2003, Mrs. Jeffrey chaired the OSU Medical Center’s fund-raising effort for the George T. Harding III, MD, Endowed Chair in Psychiatry, raising more than $1.5 million to establish the first chair in the department. The Jeffreys’ dedication to the Medical Center’s Neurosciences Campaign Committee led to the Medical Center’s raising more than $18 million for neuroscience programs. She and her husband established the Jeffrey Post-doctoral Fellowship in Academic Child and Adolescent Psychiatry in 2007. In addition, they have supported numerous other Ohio State programs, including WOSU, Women and Philanthropy, Moritz College of Law, Fisher College of Business, Wexner Center, John Glenn School of Public Affairs, the James Fund for Life, and the Chadwick Arboretum.

Mrs. Jeffrey was the first woman president of United Way in 1971, chaired its 1972 campaign, and was the first woman to receive United Way’s highest honor, the Alexis de Tocqueville Award in 1998. She was honored as a Woman of Achievement by the Columbus YWCA in 1996 and is the recipient of Ohio State’s 2002 Gerlach Development Volunteer Award.

Bruce W. Lavash
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Bruce W. Lavash is a research fellow at Procter & Gamble in Cincinnati and a member of P&G’s prestigious Victor Mills Society, which recognizes the corporation’s most innovative technologists. Mr. Lavash joined Procter & Gamble after receiving his bachelor’s and master’s degrees from The Ohio State University in 1977 and 1978, respectively. During his career at P&G, he developed more than 30 U.S. patents for paper-related consumer products that are today used and recognized globally, including tissue paper products, disposable bibs, pet litter box systems, and absorbent undergarments.

Throughout his career, he has maintained a close relationship with his alma mater, especially with the College of Engineering, where he serves as P&G’s top recruiter at Ohio State. In that role, he has been highly effective at connecting Ohio State’s top engineering students with one of America’s premier corporations. He has also been influential in obtaining P&G funding that provides significant support for several College of Engineering initiatives, including the Women in Engineering and Minority Engineering programs.

He serves as a member of the University Honors External Advisory Committee, offering an outside perspective on Ohio State’s Honors Program. With a strong belief in the value of undergraduate research, he continues to be involved in many on-campus activities, including organizing sponsors for the annual Fundamentals in Engineering Honors Program robot competition, serving as judge and speaker for the Denman Undergraduate Research Forum, and as a participant in the First Year Experience Leadership Collaborative. In addition, he conducts seminars with P&G professionals in leadership, problem solving, and communication for Ohio State students. His many contributions to Ohio State include a gift to support construction of Scott Laboratory.
For more than a century, graduating seniors have joined together to bestow a Class Gift upon the university. This tradition began in 1891 when a group of students planted five elm trees on the Oval the evening before graduation.

Since then, Class Gifts have touched the lives of hundreds of thousands of Ohio State students, alumni, and friends. From the Orton Hall chimes to “The Long Walk” on the Oval, Class Gifts have shaped our campus experience, helping to create the Ohio State we all know and cherish today.

Class Gifts are also shaping the Ohio State of tomorrow. The 2008 Class Gift is continuing this rich tradition. As the Class of 2008 collectively prepares to cross the stage as students and leave as graduates, they are leaving a legacy that will celebrate this special day and benefit future generations of Ohio State students for years to come.

They are leaving an indelible mark on the university—literally. Across campus, the new Ohio Union is being built. The 2008 Class Gift is a 16-foot university seal that will be embedded in the floor of the Great Hall in the new Ohio Union.

Continuing in the tradition of the first Ohio Union, the new Ohio Union will open in 2010 and serve as a hub for students to gather, participate in activities, and be part of a community. It will also be a place where alumni and friends can return to reminisce about their campus experience. The beautiful seal will serve as a focal point, reminding past, present, and future Buckeyes of the Class of 2008’s generosity.

As we continue to build on the past to build for the future, graduates who wish to make their 2008 Class Gift of $20.08 may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the Class of 2008 and thanks them for making a difference at Ohio State!
Today marks your official launch. My expectations for you are boundless, just as they are for Ohio State. After all, you are now a graduate of one of the finest universities in the world. I hope that makes you feel both proud and somewhat pressured.

You might start by asking yourself two questions, as most new graduates who are contemplating a move will do: What should I keep? What should I give away? Although I am no longer young enough to know everything, I do know enough to offer this advice. Some things to keep: An open mind, as challenged by your professors. The memory of Orton Hall’s chimes, because that is tradition. The sound of jackhammers at the Ohio Union and Thompson Library, because that is progress. Keep close the friend you made during orientation, when you were both excited and overwhelmed. Lock the best of this place in your heart and stow it away for the times you will need sustenance. Set out tomorrow morning, pick up just the right wind, and launch the next phase of your life.

You will have to jetison some things. Keep away from people who diminish your dreams, who deride your ambitions. Give up your doubts, and that little voice inside your head that says, “You can’t.” Ohio State says you can.

Even as you may struggle to make ends meet, you have so much to give away. Give your time and talent to a cause you believe in. Give your hope to make a better world, because you come from a great public university that believes in doing the world’s good. Give your courage when it is not convenient, your integrity now that it is most needed, your honesty in all things large and small. Give your compassion, because the world often seems to be running short. Give it your best shot, every day.

Like me, you will look to Ohio State as a harbor of high aspirations. When you tell people that you are an Ohio State graduate, you will be telling them our story, singing our song. You will represent the great promise of this land-grant institution to make a difference in others’ lives. You will know, firsthand, that Ohio State changes lives.

Go where your calling takes you, along a route that might meander. Go beyond the routine, the expected, and the easy. Like this university, you are capable of greatness. As you prepare to cast off, I hope that Ohio State has lived up to all your expectations. Now it is your turn to live up to ours. And send me a postcard every now and then to let me know how you are doing.

O-H-I-O!

E. Gordon Gee
President
On behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we congratulate you on your academic achievement! For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin. In receiving your degree today, you are joining a distinguished body of more than 440,000 Ohio State alumni who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

Your university has provided you with a well-rounded education that will help you become the leaders of tomorrow. We encourage you to build on your many accomplishments by doing something great: pay forward to your communities and make a difference in the lives of others.

We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay connected virtually: ohiostatealumni.org, and through membership in The Ohio State University Alumni Association. We want to be your gateway in connecting with Ohio State. Therefore, your first year of membership is complimentary and includes many benefits, such as a subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will help you stay informed about the university's ambitious agenda and connected with friends and classmates. In addition, the Alumni Association offers many educational programs for its members and networking opportunities, including alumni clubs in every state and in many countries around the world, and alumni societies connected with your colleges.

We celebrate you today and wholeheartedly share in your enthusiasm and all that you have achieved. Your success is driving Ohio State's move from excellence to eminence, and we will continue to count on you to carry on the university's rich and vibrant tradition and reputation. Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends, and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

Sincerely,

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commence-ments derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging. *

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD) .................................................. Gray (Others) .......................................................... Black
College of the Arts and Sciences .................................. White
College of the Arts (BA, BS Design) .......................... White (Others) ......................................................... Brown
