POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME
—by Professor David Citino, 1947–2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you’re like me, you’ve got a big head,
not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
opoms and melodies, the tunes
we move to, shower and shave by,
study, write to. Not just the incidental,
but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho’s honeyed love lyrics. Often,
music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolfo in Puccini’s La Bohème, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance

of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD
of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.
I’ll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond
in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents
of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can’t comprehend while we’re young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.
Don’t let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King
(King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain’t never killed a rabbit, you ain’t no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—
kill some rabbits—to earn respect.
And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, “Sixteen Tons”: St. Peter don’t you call me “Cause I can’t go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno’s
fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it’s the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I’m a lucky son-of-a-gun.
I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere,
or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,
President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supply as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You’re bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you’ve been sailing.
You’ve been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing
with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

Oh! Come let’s sing Ohio’s praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.

Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Recessional

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, on Monday, December 19, at 5 p.m.
Timothy Gerber joined Ohio State’s faculty in 1984 and has taught all levels of undergraduate and graduate music education courses. As a professor in the School of Music, Dr. Gerber has mentored hundreds of students, developing their skills as musicians and future music educators. His work has been published widely in professional journals, monographs, books and instructional music materials. He is a co-author of Music: Its Role and Importance in Our Lives, published in its 4th edition in 2016 as one of the nation’s first all-digital music textbooks.

His current research focuses on music teacher education, musical development in adolescents and arts policy in secondary schools. Dr. Gerber has vigorously championed the notion of music study for all students in middle and high schools, and has devoted some of his research time as a classroom music teacher in the Columbus City Schools. For 18 years, he served as the principal author of educational materials for the Columbus Symphony Orchestra.

Long active in university governance, Dr. Gerber is a respected leader in the campus community, having served on numerous key university-wide committees. In 2009, he was elected as chair of the Ohio State Faculty Council. He is currently serving his second term as secretary of the University Senate, a position he has held since 2011.

Dr. Gerber earned his undergraduate degree in music from Oberlin College, and his graduate degree in education and doctorate in musical arts from Temple University. In 2007, he was awarded the Distinguished Music Education Alumnus Award at Oberlin College. At Ohio State, he was selected by students to receive the School of Music’s Distinguished Teaching Award, and in 2013 he was named the Distinguished Scholar in the School of Music. Earlier in his Ohio State career, he was honored with a visiting appointment as the Roy Acuff Chair of Excellence at Austin Peay University.
RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Robert Parris Moses
DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Born and raised in Harlem, New York, Professor Robert Parris Moses is an icon of both the 1960s civil rights movement and the culturally responsive mathematics education movement taking place in schools across our nation today.

Professor Moses first gained recognition in the early ’60s as a prominent leader with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee’s voter education and registration efforts in Mississippi. By 1964, he had become co-director of the Council of Federated Organizations and served as the main organizer of its Mississippi Freedom Summer Project, which intended to dramatically increase voter registration of African Americans in the state.

In 1982, Professor Moses was named a MacArthur Fellow, which enabled him to further exercise his creative instincts for the benefit of society. He used his fellowship to continue revolutionizing the idea of equal opportunity, this time through the foundation of the Algebra Project, a national movement at the cutting edge of mathematics reform.

As the country’s premier mathematics literacy effort, the Algebra Project helps low-income students and students of color graduate on time and well prepared to tackle college mathematics courses. With significant support from the National Science Foundation since 1994, the project has reached nearly 40,000 students across the United States and has helped hundreds of educational communities develop effective and sustainable student-centered mathematics programs.

Professor Moses is the co-author of the book Radical Equations: Civil Rights from Mississippi to the Algebra Project, and co-editor of Quality Education as a Constitutional Right: Creating a Grassroots Movement to Transform Public Schools.

He served as a Distinguished Visiting Fellow for the Center for African American Studies at Princeton University and has been an adjunct lecturer at the New York University School of Law since 2012. He is a member of the Education Advisory Committee of the Mathematical Sciences Research Institute and is an emeritus member of the National Academy of Education. Professor Moses earned his undergraduate and graduate degrees in philosophy from Hamilton College and Harvard University, respectively.

Gary E. Booth
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Gary E. Booth came to Ohio State in the 1960s as a graduate student, eager to make his mark. After earning his doctorate in organic chemistry, Dr. Booth built an impressive career as a research chemist with Procter & Gamble. When he retired three decades later as vice president for research and development, he had achieved his goal. His work had a profound impact on P&G, where he helped develop popular household brands, including Pantene, Crest and Folgers Coffee, and established markets in China, Germany and the U.K.

Dr. Booth credits his professional success to the education he received at Ohio State. In 2008, he and his wife, Jane, established the Booth Scholarship Fund for Chemistry and Biochemistry to provide educational opportunities for future generations of chemists. They also serve as mentors for the Booth Scholars, developing close relationships with every student who receives their financial support, and offering him or her professional and personal advice. Dr. Booth has even taken groups of students on tours of P&G to show them the joys of working in a lab.

In 2011, Dr. Booth agreed to chair the fundraising committee for the Chemical and Biomolecular Engineering and Chemistry (CBECh) building on Ohio State’s Columbus campus. The committee’s ultimate success was influenced by his personal enthusiasm.

Leading by example, Dr. Booth contributed to funding the facility and inspired his peers to donate as well. He also visited alumni in the United States as part of the CBECh campaign, and provided funding for international trips to engage chemistry alumni around the globe, leading to innovative collaborations, such as a dual doctorate program in drug discovery with Hong Kong Baptist University.

Originally from Kentucky, Dr. Booth earned his undergraduate degree from Eastern Kentucky University. He also mentors at-risk youth in Cincinnati, and partnered with fellow P&G executives to launch the Children’s Safe Drinking Water Initiative in Malawi.
Dear Graduates:

Congratulations on earning the diploma soon to be in your hands. Commencement is a joyous occasion at Ohio State as years of academic study are celebrated. This is a milestone achievement, one that gives the green light to begin your next chapter. While you anticipate what is ahead, also consider how much you have gained as an Ohio State student.

During your time on campus, you have absorbed a great deal of knowledge, the true currency of today’s society. Inside the classroom, through a leadership position or by way of a research endeavor, you have learned more than is easily realized. That is certainly a feeling to cherish! In turn, thank you for embracing the university’s values through those various opportunities. It is our students who create the ultimate fabric of Ohio State.

Today is your day, and I encourage you to acknowledge those individuals who helped make it happen. Whether they are sitting in the stands or congratulating you from afar, they have contributed to the success of your academic profile in many ways. So thank loved ones for the brown bag lunches that fueled you and thank teachers for the resources that guided you. Much of what you have accomplished can be traced back to the support of others along the way.

The university exists to develop tomorrow’s lead problem solvers. I sincerely hope each of you will go forth and make a difference as an Ohio State graduate. Be curious enough to ask questions and passionate enough to find answers. This is the spirit of a Buckeye for life. Congratulations once again!

Sincerely,

Michael V. Drake, MD

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably affected the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation’s English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar’s book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master’s degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, with long or short sleeves and an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which indicates the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

- Graduate School (PhD): Gray
- (Others): Black
- College of Arts and Sciences

POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you’re sitting twenty-six years ago. Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles! My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history. Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We’ve all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we’ll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78’s and 33’s, tapes, CD’s—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary’s, father marched in the first “Script Ohio,” in 1936. He’s here today with us, blowing his horn, I can’t help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today’s music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay. So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs. Some are here today in the flesh. Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song. When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let’s sing Ohio’s praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.

Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help. Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it’s time we moved out, got a place of our own. You’re standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won’t forget you. Now, even though this ceremony means we’re being weaned, taken off the nipple, let’s take care to cherish her all our days. Let’s remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We’ll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer’s heat, winter’s cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You’ve worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You’re filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we’ve written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
