Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio
Graduates and guests led by
Anne Patterson Seaton

Oh, come let’s sing Ohio’s praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer’s heat or Winter’s cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV,
Channel 34, at 5:30 p.m. today.
Stanley J. Aronoff
Doctor of Laws

As an energetic and committed public servant, Stanley J. Aronoff has devoted his considerable abilities to positioning Ohio as a leader in the areas of higher education, fine arts, and welfare reform.

A member of the Cincinnati law firm of Aronoff, Rosen & Stockdale, he has been a Republican state senator from the eighth district since 1967. Previously, he was a member of the Ohio House of Representatives from 1960 to 1966. Aronoff is currently president of the Ohio Senate.

A graduate of Harvard Law School, Aronoff focused his attention on higher education as a freshman representative and eventually became a leader in the movement for junior colleges, serving on the subcommittee that created the Community College Bill. He was also an active participant in the legislation that created the Ohio Board of Regents and the Ohio Student Loan Commission.

In 1965, Aronoff was instrumental in the establishment of the Ohio Arts Council. This council fosters a statewide cultural environment that attracts more business to the state. His experience and expertise in this field resulted in his being named the national chairman of the Arts, Tourism, and Cultural Resources Committee by the National Conference of State Legislatures in 1983. He has also served on the National Task Force for the Arts.

Aronoff has received numerous awards and recently received honorary degrees from the University of Cincinnati and Kent State University. Miami University awarded him its President's Medal, the Ohio Museums' Association named him "Museum Legislator of the Year," the American Physical Therapy Association named him "Man of the Year," and he received certificates of appreciation from the Ohio Farmers Union and the Sickle Cell Awareness Group of Greater Cincinnati, Inc. Columbus Monthly named him "one of the five best Ohio legislators" in 1988 and 1989. He received the Ohio Bar Association's Distinguished Service Award in 1986.

His commitment to the ideal of accessible higher education for all Ohioans makes Stanley Aronoff a particularly appropriate speaker for this commencement ceremony. Ohio State is honored to welcome him.
Recipients of Honors

Richard Armitage
Distinguished Service Award

Richard Armitage's 35 years of service to Ohio State were distinguished by a high regard for scholarship, professionalism, and the value of personal communication.

Armitage received his bachelor's degree from Oberlin College and his master's and doctoral degrees from Ohio State, where he was designated a University Scholar in Romance Languages in 1940-41. He joined the Ohio State faculty in 1941 as an instructor in the Department of Romance Languages and rose to the rank of full professor, specializing in Spanish and Latin American studies. In 1955, he was named assistant dean of the College of the Arts and Sciences. In 1957, he assumed the duties of assistant dean of the Graduate School and became dean in 1963.

As dean, Armitage became deeply involved in the qualitative improvement of Ohio State's graduate programs, raising standards for both faculty and students. During his tenure, Armitage also brought Ohio State's University Press into prominence through his insistence on publishing selective scholarship in a high quality manner.

He served as the University's first ombudsman—a position that grew out of the campus turmoil of the late '60s and early '70s. The understanding he demonstrated in this position led to his appointment as Ohio State's vice president for student affairs in 1973.

Armitage is remembered not only for his sensitivity in dealing with the University community during troubled times, but also for his efforts to bring Ohio State's athletic programs up to higher academic standards.

In 1978, the Ohio State chapter of the American Association of University Professors honored Armitage with the first Nemzer Award, given each year to a member of the University community who has promoted and defended academic freedom.

Armitage took the position of vice chancellor for student services at the University of California at San Diego in 1978. By 1981, he became director of student academic services at the University of California at Los Angeles until his retirement.

At the time he left Ohio State, Armitage was hailed by President Emeritus for his "vital role in the life of the University." Today, Ohio State is pleased to recognize that role with its Distinguished Service Award.

Jack L. Beal
Distinguished Service Award

As a dedicated researcher, committed teacher, and loyal alumnus, Jack L. Beal has served Ohio State in an outstanding manner.

Beal joined the faculty of Ohio State's College of Pharmacy in 1952, after receiving his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Kansas and his Ph.D. from Ohio State. During his 34-year tenure at the University, he pioneered research on antitumor, antihypertensive, antibiotic, and other types of biologically active constituents from plants. His research brought him international recognition in the field of natural product chemistry, and from 1977-84, he served as editor of the Journal of Natural Products.

Thousands of undergraduate pharmacy students have benefited over the years from Beal's skills as an educator. Many of his former students occupy distinguished positions as researchers and teachers around the world.

In 1961, as a Fulbright Fellow, Beal was visiting scientist at the University of Baghdad, and in 1976 he was visiting professor at the University of Munich. That same year, he was awarded honorary membership in the Egyptian Pharmaceutical Society. Among his many other honors are The Ohio State University Centennial Service Award, The Ohio State University Distinguished Alumni Award, Outstanding Educator of America, Research Achievement Natural Products Chemistry, honorary membership in the American Society of Pharmacognosy, and the Distinguished Economic Botanist Award.

In the latter stages of his academic career, Beal assumed administrative responsibilities as the College of Pharmacy's associate dean for graduate and research studies, the position he held at his 1986 retirement. Throughout his long service to Ohio State and to the College of Pharmacy, Beal maintained a lively interest in the college's alumni. Through his initiative and commitment, he developed an energetic College of Pharmacy Alumni Association in which, as professor emeritus, he continues in an active role.

The Ohio State University proudly recognizes Jack L. Beal's enduring contributions to scholarship and alumni relations with the Distinguished Service Award.
Congratulations and Welcome to the Alumni Association

Congratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you've become an alumnus. For you, one era has passed, another is about to begin.

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the University in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the University to improve itself and its programs to better prepare today's students for tomorrow's citizenship.

We extend to you a year's complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year's subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the University's continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and those others who helped you arrive here today go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

This program is not an official graduation list.

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this commencement program, printing deadlines sometimes prevent inclusion of graduates' names, or may result in use of names of persons not completing graduation requirements. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, 202 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, OH 43210-1230.

The Academic Costume

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University Commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In the light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the University.

The Gown

Bachelor. Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.
Master. Black, long or short sleeves with a re-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.
Doctor. Black with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

The Hood

Bachelor. Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*
Master. Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.*
Doctor. Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.
* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

- Dentistry: Lilac
- Law: Purple
- Medicine: Green
- Musical Arts: Pink
- Optometry: Sea-foam Green
- Pharmacy: Olive Green
- Philosophy: Dark Blue
- Veterinary Medicine: Gray

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:
