POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-surnes of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolfo in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo, I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school. In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes cum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) whose stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those pros and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons:" St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Vo-o-o-o-o. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours. That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the BBQ Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world. Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio
Graduates and guests led by Matthew A. Zabiegala

Oh! Come let’s sing Ohio’s praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer’s heat or Winter’s cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Ambassador Susan E. Rice is a highly respected diplomat and expert in international relations. She has served since 2009 as the United States Permanent Representative to the United Nations and is a member of President Obama’s Cabinet and a principal on the National Security Council. Ambassador Rice has devoted her life’s work to serving this country and promotes the interest of the United States, fiercely advocating universal values, respect for human rights, and global security and prosperity.

Before her appointment as Ambassador to the United Nations, Dr. Rice served as senior advisor for National Security Affairs on the Obama for America Campaign, later serving on the advisory board of the Obama-Biden Transition and as co-chair of its policy working group on national security. From 2002 to 2009, she worked as a senior fellow at the Brookings Institution, a nonprofit public policy organization with a mission to strengthen American democracy. In her role, she specialized in areas such as U.S. foreign policy and global poverty and development.

Prior to her work at the Brookings Institution, Ambassador Rice served as Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs from 1997 to 2001. As such, she addressed political, economic, security, and humanitarian issues for 48 countries in Sub-Saharan Africa, as well as managed 43 United States Embassies and more than 5,000 U.S. and Foreign Service national employees. She served as President Clinton’s special assistant and senior director for African Affairs from 1995 to 1997 on the National Security Council.

Ambassador Rice’s important work has been universally recognized. In 2000, she was named co-recipient of the White House’s Samuel Nelson Drew Award for her distinguished contributions to the formation of peaceful, cooperative relationships between states. She has lent her expertise and service to many organizational boards, including the National Democratic Institute, the Partnership for Public Service, the U.S. Fund for UNICEF, and the Partnership for Public Service.

A native of Washington, D.C., Ambassador Rice earned her BA at Stanford University, where she was a Truman Scholar. She continued her education at Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar, completing her MPhil and PhD in international relations.
RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Donald Harris
DOCTOR OF MUSIC

onald Harris, an internationally renowned composer, musicologist, and arts administrator, is Professor Emeritus of Composition and Theory at The Ohio State University. He previously served the university as dean of the College of the Arts and Professor of Music from 1988 to 1997. Before joining the Ohio State faculty, he served at the New England Conservatory of Music and the Hartt School of Music, University of Hartford. In addition, Professor Harris, while living and composing in Paris, France, during the 1950s and 1960s, worked as the music consultant to the United States Information Service.

As a member of the Ohio State faculty for more than 20 years before his retirement in 2010, Professor Harris resolutely devoted his life’s work to advancing and enriching the culture of the arts at the university. He was the driving force behind such influential and meaningful events as the long-running Contemporary Music Festival, a collaboration between the School of Music and the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, and the Lawrence and Isabel Barnett Symposium.

Professor Harris has touched the lives of thousands as a teacher, colleague, and collaborator. His leadership and influence truly reach around the globe, as evidenced by his service on many national and international boards. He is a past president of the International Council of Fine Arts Deans. In addition, he remains active in the local arts community and has devoted his time and energy to such organizations as the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, Pro Musica, BalletMet, and the King Arts Complex.

His uniquely decorated career has garnered myriad honors, including a commission from the Serge Koussevitzky Foundation for a major orchestral work. This resulted in his most recent composition, Symphony No. 2, which was premiered by the Columbus Symphony Orchestra earlier this year. He has received numerous other commissions, including the Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge Foundation in the Library of Congress, St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, Radio France, Cleveland Orchestra, Cleveland Chamber Symphony, and the Festival of Contemporary Music at Tanglewood.

Professor Harris has been the recipient of both a Guggenheim and a Fulbright Fellowship. He received the ASCAP Deems Taylor Award in 1989 for the W.W. Norton publication of the correspondence between Alban Berg and Arnold Schoenberg, of which he was co-editor. In 1991, the American Academy and Institute of Arts and Letters honored him with an award in composition.

Professor Harris received his BMus and MMus in composition from the University of Michigan.

Douglas S. Massey
DOCTOR OF SOCIAL SCIENCE

O

ne of the world’s most eminent sociologists, Douglas S. Massey is the Henry G. Bryant Professor of Sociology and Public Affairs at Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs. His influential research on racial inequality and international migration has truly broadened our understanding of social dynamics.

Dr. Massey’s research focuses on international migration, race, housing, discrimination, education, urban poverty, and Latin America, and includes particularly significant multidisciplinary work with Mexican immigrants to the United States. His investigative efforts have resulted in information and insights used to craft more realistic immigration policies. In addition, Dr. Massey is renowned for his ability to address issues of broad disciplinary and public concern through use of the latest and most well defended research findings.

Dr. Massey is coauthor of American Apartheid (1993), a book that continues to have a wide impact on social sciences and is frequently read by graduate students in the fields of sociology, geography, and political science. Notably, this book received the Distinguished Publication Award of the American Sociological Association. He more recently coauthored The Source of the River (2003), which is an analysis on minority achievement in selective colleges and universities, and Taming the River (2009), which examines determinants of persistence and grade achievement through the first two years of college. In addition, he has published extensively on immigration, including Return to Aztlán (1987), Miracles on the Border (1995), Beyond Smoke and Mirrors (2002), and Brokered Boundaries: Constructing Immigrant Identity in Anti-Immigrant Times (2010).

A nationally recognized expert in his field, Dr. Massey has been the recipient of numerous awards and accolades. Most recently, he received the 2012 Award for the Public Understanding of Sociology from the American Sociological Association. He is a member of the National Academy of Sciences and the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, as well as the American Philosophical Society.

Dr. Massey currently serves as president of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, and previously served as president of the Population Association of America and the American Sociological Association. He also serves on the Council of the National Academy of Sciences.

Dr. Massey received his BA from Western Washington University, and his MA and PhD in sociology from Princeton University.
RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

John W. Kessler
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

As a renowned businessman and leader, John W. Kessler is the owner of the John W. Kessler Company as well as chair of The New Albany Company. He serves currently as board director for Abercrombie & Fitch and on the board of the Commercial Vehicle Group.

Mr. Kessler’s passion for community is evident in his unwavering commitment to improving the quality of life for residents in central Ohio. He is a current board member of The Columbus Partnership, the Columbus Downtown Development Corporation, and the Columbus Regional Airport Authority, organizations that work to strengthen business and residential communities in Columbus and its neighboring cities. He also has lent his considerable talents to projects with the Ohio Public Works Commission and Greater Columbus Chamber of Commerce.

In addition, Mr. Kessler is an avid champion for the arts. During his time on boards for the Columbus Museum of Art and The Ohio Arts & Sports Facilities Commission, he led many projects and initiatives that rejuvenated the central Ohio arts community. Mr. Kessler’s leadership was key to a highly successful capital campaign for the Wexner Center for the Arts—one of the premier arts facilities in this country.

Known widely for his tremendous support for his alma mater, Mr. Kessler has long promoted the aspirations and goals of The Ohio State University through his service. As chair of the Board of Trustees from 1994 to 1995, he implemented many integral changes and furthered the university’s Advancement mission. To this day, he remains a committed advocate for Ohio State, and serves on the board of the John Glenn School of Public Affairs, helping to bring the school to eminence as one of the top public affairs programs in the country.

Mr. Kessler’s service has been recognized through various honors, including being named Columbus Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Citizen, and induction into the Central Ohio Business Hall of Fame.

He received his BA in business administration from The Ohio State University.

Keith D. Monda

Keith D. Monda is highly regarded in the business world for his transformational leadership abilities. Throughout his distinguished career, Mr. Monda held significant positions of responsibility with Pfizer, J. Crew, and The Timberland Company. He later joined Coach, Inc. as its president and chief operating officer. Mr. Monda spearheaded the transformation of Coach from a manufacturer to a marketing company, implementing a global sourcing strategy that enabled the company to expand its product offering in the United States and across the globe.

Having earned both his BA and MA in economics from The Ohio State University, Mr. Monda remains an ardent supporter of his alma mater. He continues to serve on the university’s foundation board, a role in which he has helped draw significant private support from Ohio State alumni and friends. As chair of the Arts and Sciences advisory board and the Arts and Sciences campaign committee, Mr. Monda has been instrumental in furthering the mission of the college and ensuring the success of faculty and students.

Mr. Monda continues to generously share his time, talent, and service with the university. He often returns to campus to share his experience and expertise with undergraduate students, faculty members, and alumni alike. His guest lectures in several undergraduate economics courses, as well as the Undergraduate Economics Club and the Politics, Society, and Law Scholars group, are highlights on campus.

Both he and his wife Linda have devoted their philanthropic efforts to students and remain vocal advocates for the importance of student scholarships. The Keith and Linda Monda Scholarship Fund provides support for students from Ohio who study economics. Most recently, the couple established the Keith and Linda Monda International Experience Scholarships. This significant gift enables students to study abroad, giving them the opportunity to explore new cultures and perspectives firsthand.

Mr. Monda also supports the Students First, Students Now initiative in the College of Arts and Sciences, providing emergency financial aid to students in need.
The Ohio State University

2012 Class Gift

On the eve of graduation in 1891, a group of Ohio State students planted five elm trees on the Oval. Now, more than a century later, "The Five Brothers" grove still grows and the tradition of bestowing a Class Gift upon the university continues.

Through the years, graduating seniors have helped shape the campus experience of countless students, alumni, and friends of Ohio State by offering a Class Gift. The chimes of Orton Hall, "The Long Walk" on the Oval, the beautification of Mirror Lake, and University Hall's tower clock are but a few of the special projects funded by students wishing to commemorate their time spent at this great university.

Members of the 2012 class have an opportunity to leave their unique legacy and participate in Ohio State's history of giving. By making a gift to Ohio State, graduating seniors can express appreciation for the education they have received by giving to the area that has meant the most to them like scholarships, colleges, offices, departments, programs, athletics, or student life.

As we continue to build for the future by building on the foundations of the past, graduates who wish to commit $20.12 or other amount as part of the 2012 Class Gift may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the graduates of 2012, and thanks them for their contributions to the Ohio State community.
Graduates:

Take a moment and look around you. Your friends, family, and fellow new alumni are together today to celebrate one of life’s major milestones—your successful passage through four (or more!) rigorous years of higher education.

Believe it or not, I once also wore the robes of a young college graduate and I can assure you I still vividly remember the feeling of that enormous achievement—one that I hope prompts you to stand taller and walk a bit more proudly.

In the spirit of the occasion, I offer a few words of encouragement. The world today is full of unique and exciting opportunities for college graduates. Indeed, whatever discipline you have decided to pursue for yourself, endless possibilities are now open to you to create, to repair, to heal, to inform, and to inspire in previously unimaginable ways. My belief is that wherever there is a job to be done, no one is better suited for it than a graduate of Ohio State.

Personally, I am more confident than ever before in the knowledge and skills you have earned by making your way through this great university. The wisdom you have gained will make you valuable stewards of the community in which you belong, as well as the world that you inherit. More and more frequently, it is a world that calls for inspiration and imagination. But this—to my mind—means only that everyone should grow very accustomed to hearing, with increasing frequency: O-H-I-O!

Sincerely,

E. Gordon Gee
President
On behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we congratulate you on your academic achievement! For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin. In receiving your degree today, you are joining a distinguished body of nearly 500,000 Ohio State alumni who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

Your university has provided you with a well-rounded education that will help you become the leaders of tomorrow. We encourage you to build on your many accomplishments by doing something great: pay forward to your communities and make a difference in the lives of others.

We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay connected and actively engaged in many ways, including virtually through ohiostatealumni.org, and through membership in The Ohio State University Alumni Association. We want to be your gateway in connecting with Ohio State. Therefore, your first year of membership is complimentary and includes many benefits, such as a subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will help you stay informed about the university's ambitious agenda and connected with friends and classmates. In addition, the Alumni Association offers many educational programs for its members and networking opportunities to connect and engage, including through alumni clubs in every state and in many countries around the world, and through alumni societies in your colleges.

We celebrate you today and wholeheartedly share in your enthusiasm and all that you have achieved. Your success is driving Ohio State's move from excellence to eminence, and we will continue to count on you to carry on the university's rich and vibrant tradition and reputation. Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends, and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

Sincerely,

CONGRATULATIONS TO THOSE OF YOU RECEIVING DEGREES THIS YEAR FROM THE GRADUATE SCHOOL AS WE CELEBRATE OUR 100TH ANNIVERSARY. TODAY, OVER 1,750 NEW MASTER’S AND NEARLY 225 PH.DS WILL JOIN THE MORE THAN 157,500 GRADUATE ALUMNI SINCE THE GRADUATE SCHOOL'S FOUNDING IN 1911. TO PUT THIS IN PERSPECTIVE, THE GRADUATE SCHOOL AWARDED JUST TWO PH.DS AND 52 MASTER’S DEGREES IN ITS SECOND YEAR OF EXISTENCE. THE GROWTH FROM THEN TO NOW IS EXTRAORDINARY AND HELPS DEMONSTRATE WHY OHIO STATE AND OHIO STATE GRADUATE ALUMNI ARE KNOWN ALL OVER THE WORLD.

OF THE MANY RECURRING THEMES FROM THE PAST 100 YEARS, OUR NATIONAL CONVERSATION HAS ONCE AGAIN TURNED TO THE SIGNIFICANT VALUE THAT GRADUATE DEGREE HOLDERS ADD TO ANY EMPLOYMENT SECTOR. THIS GROWING DEMAND HAS A TRULY GLOBAL REACH. EMPLOYERS NEED INDIVIDUALS WHO DEMONSTRATE THOSE QUALITIES THAT HAVE ALWAYS DISTINGUISHED STUDENTS PURSUING GRADUATE DEGREES—they are forward thinking, creative, and motivated. THE PH.D, FOR EXAMPLE, PREPARES INDIVIDUALS TO ENGAGE IN INDEPENDENT RESEARCH AND TO CREATIVELY FORMULATE NEW QUESTIONS. WITH THESE SKILLS, OUR GRADUATES ARE UNIQUELY PREPARED TO ADDRESS AND HELP SOLVE THE CHALLENGES FACING HUMANITY THAT ARISE EVERY DAY IN OUR INCREASINGLY COMPLEX WORLD.

DURING THE GRADUATE SCHOOL’S CENTENNIAL YEAR, WE ARE UNDERSCORING THE VALUE OF GRADUATE EDUCATION THROUGH THE FOLLOWING PROJECTS:

• Creating opportunities for new, professionally oriented master’s programs that meet local, state, and national needs
• Exploring new directions in doctoral education
• Hosting a summit at Ohio State focusing on career pathways for graduate students
• Celebrating the achievements of our current graduate students

ADDITIONALLY, I AM REACHING OUT TO OHIO STATE GRADUATE SCHOOL ALUMNI TO SEE HOW THEY ARE USING THEIR DEGREES. IF YOU ARE ONE OF TODAY’S GRADUATES, OR ALUMNI OR ALUMNA, I AM EAGER TO HEAR YOUR STORY AND GAIN YOUR PERSPECTIVE ON OUR GRADUATE ACTIVITIES AT OHIO STATE. YOU CAN PARTICIPATE IN THESE DISCUSSIONS ON THE GRADUATE SCHOOL BLOG AT GO.OSU.EDU/GRADSCHOOLBLOG. I WELCOME ALL OF YOU TO WRITE ME DIRECTLY AT OSNER.1@OSU.EDU.

Sincerely,

Patrick S. Osmer
Vice Provost for Graduate Studies and Dean of the Graduate School
This program is not an official graduation list.

This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Spring Quarter 2012, as of 5:00 p.m., June 1, 2012, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, Student Academic Services Building, 281 West Lane Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210-1132.

English
This program is not an official graduation list.
This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Spring Quarter 2012, as of 5:00 p.m., June 1, 2012, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, Student Academic Services Building, 281 West Lane Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210-1132.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD) .......................................................... Gray

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and university administrative officers.
Photography

As a courtesy to those persons receiving degrees today, please remain seated in the stands until the graduates have received their diplomas and moved past the stadium gates. Photographs may be taken from the stands at any time during the ceremony. However, only press photographers are permitted on the field.

A professional photographer will take a photograph of each graduate as the diploma is awarded. A free color print of the photograph will be mailed to the graduate’s address within one month after graduation. You may purchase additional photos, but you are not obligated to do so.

Complimentary Programs

A limited number of programs are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Requests should be sent to the Office of Commencement and Special Events, 1060 Blankenship Hall, 901 Woody Hayes Drive, Columbus, OH 43210-4016.

In the case of inclement weather, every effort will be made to hold commencement as planned. Commencement will take place in Ohio Stadium, unless weather conditions are dangerous or severe, in which case the ceremony will be canceled. No indoor facility on campus can accommodate the graduating class and 50,000 guests.

On commencement day, Ohio State officials will be in continuous contact with the National Weather Service to monitor approaching weather. If it is feasible to delay the start of the ceremony and wait for clearing or less severe weather, the start of the ceremony may be delayed up to one hour. Should this happen, any changes will be announced on-site to graduates and guests. Graduates will remain in the assembly locations; guests are asked to remain in protected areas of Ohio Stadium. Your patience and cooperation will help facilitate this plan.

In case of cancellation

If it is determined that severe weather will not permit us to hold commencement, the ceremony will be canceled. Once cancellation has been announced, graduates should report to the following locations one hour after cancellation to receive their diplomas.

It is strongly advised that graduates and guests prearrange a meeting place in case the ceremony is canceled. Guests should not go to French Field House or RPAC where most diplomas will be distributed to graduates. St. John Arena and various locations on West Lane Avenue are some suggested meeting sites.

Diplomas will remain in the following locations until 4 p.m. on commencement day. Diplomas not picked up by 4 p.m. will be taken to the Student Service Center (SSC) on the first floor of the Student Academic Services (SAS) building, 281 West Lane Avenue. Diplomas will be available for pick-up there between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., June 11-15. If a graduate’s diploma remains unclaimed after June 15, it will be mailed to the permanent address on record within two to four weeks of commencement. Graduates can verify/change their mailing addresses by navigating to the BuckeyeLink web site at buckeyelink.osu.edu. Click on “My Student Center,” then scroll down to the “Personal Information” section to view the address. Click on the “Permanent Address” hyperlink if there is a need to edit it.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat there you're sitting twenty-six years ago.
Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in History.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We’ve all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we’ll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see. Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 70’s and 33’s, tapes, CD’s—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the rundown of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or baked in the blues.
We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.
Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field, Men (and women) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary’s, father marched in the first “Script Ohio” in 1936. He’s here today with us, blowing his horn, I can’t help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today’s music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice. taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.
When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let’s sing Ohio’s praise. And songs to Alma Mater raise, Alma mater.
Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.
We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it’s time we moved out, got a place of our own. You’re standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won’t forget you.
Now, even though this ceremony means we’re being weaned, taken off the nipple, let’s take care to cherish her all our days. Let’s remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We’ll remember always, Graduation Day, Summer’s heat, and winter’s cold. The seasons pass, the years will roll. Time and change will surely show. How firm thy friendship, O-He-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You’ve worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.
You’re filled to over-flowing with the notes, the poems we’ve written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.
Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
Carmen Ohio

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,

And songs to Alma Mater raise;

While our hearts rebounding thrill,

With joy which death alone can still.

Summer's heat or Winter's cold,

The seasons pass, the years will roll;

Time and change will surely show

How firm thy friendship—Ohio
