To Our New Alumni:

Welcome, a warm welcome, to the ranks of the alumni of The Ohio State University. Back in 1878 there were six alumni—new and untested. This small group has grown in 1969 to a body of more than 155,000 who have received degrees here, and our loyal Ohio State University Association has built the second largest organized constituency that exists among universities today.

The modern alumnus is a dedicated servant of education. The fruits of a good education—the critical mind, the discerning spirit, the higher values, the sense of commitment, and the privilege of service—are exemplified in tens of thousands of our products.

In a very real sense, the alumni are members of the family and full-fledged partners in the enterprise—in Ohio, in the nation, and throughout the world.

What can you do for the University? There seems to be general agreement on four major services which alumni can be counted on to render: 1) the ambassadorial service of representing Ohio State well wherever they go; 2) the service of strengthening Ohio State’s resources through participation in the Development Fund; 3) the recruiting service of well-qualified students to Ohio State; and 4) the advisory service of strengthening Ohio State’s role in society.

A great university is composed of many diverse people and many diverse ideas; so is society as a whole—and our alumni are the people best able to provide the vital link between our campus and its environment. With your assistance, we cannot fail to meet this challenge.

The University extends to you a year’s free membership in the Association and with it will come automatically a subscription to THE MONTHLY, a magazine devoted to the task of helping you “keep in touch” with our exciting pursuit of human excellence.

Congratulations to you—and to your families and friends. You are joining a great family, for Ohio State is permanent among so many impermanencies. Your University is something to come back to—growing ever more rich and mellow in spirit.

We invite you to join with all alumni in looking ahead to 1970 when the entire University community will participate in observance of our 100th birthday. Alumni-sponsored Charter Day, March 22, 1970, will be a highlight of the University’s Centennial Celebration!

Sincerely,

C. GORDON JELLIFFE   RICHARD M. MALL

Member of the Class of 1969

O come let's sing Ohio's praise
And songs to Alma Mater raise
While our hearts rebounding thrill
With joy which death alone can still;
Summer's heat and winter's cold
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

The Recipient of the Honorary Degree

EDWARD A. HOBART

Doctor of Science

Engineer of unusual capabilities, scientist, inventor, industrial organizer, civic leader, and one of the great pioneers of the welding industry

Edward A. Hobart, President and Chairman of the Board of the Hobart Brothers Company of Troy, Ohio, has made the Hobart name synonymous with industrial progress. The pioneering work he did as a young man resulted in 34 significant patents and formed a basis for products and product development for the new company which he founded with his brother.

In World War II, he served his country in the development of portable welding equipment, power units for anti-aircraft gun installations, radar power units as well as power units for the Early Warning Radar line. As the aviation industry grew, mobile ground power equipment was needed, first for internal engines and then for jet engines. Mr. Hobart’s leadership and his work insured that such equipment was developed.

The welding field captured Mr. Hobart’s principle interest, and with his associates, he devoted his attention to the task of advancing this new field. Soon he realized that if the industry were to grow it would require not only equipment to obtain the welding arc but also new kinds of electrodes. The Korean War, however, caused a shortage of rutile, a basic component of electrode manufacturing. Mr. Hobart’s response was to develop a process for the separation of rutile from Florida sands, work for which he was awarded three patents and from which evolved a new mining venture which he helped to organize. Today, because of his efforts, the United States is independent of overseas sources of rutile, a material useful in many industries.

A shortage of welding operators prompted him to begin a trade school which later grew into a modern technical institute. As the Hobart organization expanded, he designed and constructed its facilities. The influx of many new people to local industry created a shortage of suitable housing and recreational facilities in the small town of Troy. Mr. Hobart personally developed several subdivisions which provided more than one thousand homes in pleasant surroundings and assisted in the development of public parks, a stadium, and other recreational facilities valued at more than one million dollars.

Edward A. Hobart has been quick to identify the challenges facing our country and has responded creatively to meet the problems of change with effective solutions. The Ohio State University is privileged to honor this distinguished alumnus for his many contributions to his fellow man.

The Academic Costume

The American Council on Education, through the cooperation of its institutional members, has established the Academic Costume Code, which has been adopted almost completely by institutions of higher learning in this country. The following information is provided for the benefit of visitors to academic ceremonies at The Ohio State University.

THE GOWN

Bachelor
Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master
Black, long or short sleeves with arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor
Black, with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

THE HOOD

Bachelor
Three feet in length with a two-inch wide velvet.*

Master
Three and one-half feet in length with a three-inch wide velvet.*

Doctor
Four feet in length with a five-inch wide velvet and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution from which the degree was received. The color of the velvet on all hoods indicates the field of study as follows:

- Agriculture: Maize
- Arts, Letters, Humanities: White
- Commerce, Accountancy, Business: Drab
- Dentistry: Lilac
- Economics: Copper
- Education: Light Blue
- Engineering: Orange
- Fine Arts, Including Architecture: Brown
- Forestry: Russet
- Journalism: Crimson
- Law: Purple
- Library Science: Lemon
- Medicine: Green
- Music: Pink
- Nursing: Apricot
- Optometry: Sea-foam Green
- Oratory (Speech): Silver Gray
- Pharmacy: Olive Green
- Philosophy: Dark Blue
- Physical Education: Sage Green
- Public Administration, Including Foreign Service: Peacock Blue
- Public Health: Salmon Pink
- Science: Golden Yellow
- Social Work: Citron
- Theology: Scarlet
- Veterinary Medicine: Gray

CAP AND TASSEL

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel the color of which is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

- Graduate School: Black
- College of The Arts (B.F.A.): White
- School of Music: Brown
- College of Biological Sciences: Pink
- College of Humanities: White
- College of Mathematics and Physical Sciences: White
- College of Social and Behavioral Sciences: White
- School of Journalism: Crimson
- College of Administrative Science: Drab
- School of Social Work: Citron
- College of Agriculture and Home Economics: Maize
- School of Home Economics: Maroon
- School of Natural Resources: Maize
- College of Dentistry: Lilac
- College of Education: Light Blue
- School of Physical Education: Sage Green
- College of Engineering: Orange
- School of Architecture: Orange
- College of Law: Purple
- College of Medicine: Green
- School of Allied Medical Professions: Green
- School of Nursing: Apricot
- College of Optometry: Sea-foam Green
- College of Pharmacy: Olive Green
- College of Veterinary Medicine: Gray

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and university administrative officers.

The names of all graduates is provided only for members of the Class and for others participating in the ceremony. Occasionally members of the Class desire a second copy as a memento for their families. A limited number of programs is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Requests should be sent to the Commencement Office, 107 Administration Bldg., 109 N. Oval Dr., Columbus, Ohio 43210.
