Welcome to new Alumni Association members

We extend to you a congratulatory year’s free membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year’s subscription to our alumni magazine, The Monthly. Devoted to the task of helping you keep in touch with our exciting pursuit of human excellence, the alumni magazine will also help you maintain an update on your friends and colleagues.

You may not notice the difference. But today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you’ve become an alumnus. You don’t look different, but right now you may be experiencing a feeling of excitement, anticipation, and a great desire to celebrate. For you, one era has passed; another is about to begin.

From the six alumni who experienced the first Commencement in 1878 to the thousands who make up today’s Ohio State University Alumni Association, our organized efforts have galvanized energies, ideas, and enthusiasm into greater good for Alma Mater.

As an alumnus, you are a member of the Buckeye family and a partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

Today, and later, you may ask what you can do for the University. There seems to be general agreement on four areas where alumni can provide significant assistance: recruiting of new and highly qualified students; representing Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements; participating financially through the Development Fund; and working in an advisory capacity with the University to improve itself and its programs to better prepare today’s students for tomorrow’s citizenship.

To you, your families, friends, and those others who helped you arrive here today go our congratulations. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference.

Service

Oh! come let’s sing Ohio’s praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer’s heat and Winter’s cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Awarding of Diplomas

Recessional
Richard J. Anderle
Doctor of Science

Distinguished scientist and public servant, Richard J. Anderle is recognized internationally for his singular contributions to satellite geodesy. His innovative research brought new precision to the measurement of the earth's gravitational field and greatly increased the accuracy of positioning on the earth, in the air, and at sea. As an architect of the Navy Navigational Satellite System and the Space Surveillance System, he provided exceptional leadership for programs critically important to this nation and earned the deserved recognition of government. His scientific achievements have advanced the frontiers of knowledge. The Ohio State University is honored to honor him for his many contributions to science and to his country.

Eileen Heckart
Doctor of Humane Letters

The Ohio State University acclaims Eileen Heckart's distinguished achievements in the performing arts and rejoices that one of its own has contributed so much to the American theatre. A truly exceptional artist, she brings unusual flair and insight to every role. Widely honored for her excellence as an actress, she has received the Outer Circle, Donaldson, and New York Drama Critics Awards for theatre; Emmy and Sylvania Awards for television; and an Oscar for her work in films. Through the years she has retained a special place in her life for her alma mater and has shared her time and talent generously to further theatre at this University. Eileen Heckart personifies the highest standards of her profession and the finest traditions of The Ohio State University.
Audrey P. Enarson
Distinguished Service Award

As “First Lady” of The Ohio State University, Audrey P. Enarson has contributed immeasurably to the advancement of this institution and to the creation of good will on its behalf. She has represented Ohio State with unusual sensitivity and skill. She has shared her life generously with others, through a wide range of campus, community, and national groups. Her record of service is impressive. Yet her lasting contribution to this University may best be found in the warmth of personality and the concern for people that made her a superbly effective partner in the leadership of Ohio State.

Harold L. Enarson
Doctor of Humane Letters

As history will record, The Ohio State University has been served exceedingly well by Harold L. Enarson. During his nine years as President, he shaped the spirit and mission of this University in lasting ways. Today, Ohio State's programs are stronger and its reputation more eminent than ever before. To the Presidency he brought an incisive mind and firm hand, common sense and compassion, unswerving integrity and high purpose. An articulate and courageous spokesman, he presented issues in sharp focus and gave Ohio State a national voice. He is one of the nation's outstanding academic leaders, widely respected for his commitment to excellence and honored for his contributions to higher education. The Enarson Years have made Ohio State a finer University, and for this, all citizens of Ohio are in his debt.

This program is an unofficial graduation list
While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this commencement program, printing deadlines sometimes prevent inclusion of graduates' names, or may result in use of names of persons not completing graduation requirements. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferment of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of Registration, Records, and Scheduling, 320 Lincoln Tower, 1860 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

The Academic Costume

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University Commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics as well, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings made caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods a necessity for warmth. Probably because of the costumes’ religious heritage, they remained drab until the universities gradually began to pass from the control of the Church, whereupon some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. However, old prints and engravings reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and the academic costume worn today.

In light of our nation’s strong English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity with regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed which prepared a code for caps, gowns, and hoods which has been adopted by all institutions. Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the more familiar mortarboard square — a shape which ballad folklore suggests resembles a scholar’s book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship for it covers any dress which might indicate rank or social strata. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctor’s degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the University.

The Gown

Bachelor  Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master  Black, long or short sleeves with arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor  Black, with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

The Hood

Bachelor  Three feet in length with a two-inch-wide velvet.*

Master  Three and one-half feet in length with a three-inch-wide velvet.*

Doctor  Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution from which the degree was received. The color of the velvet indicates the field in which the doctoral was granted:

- Dentistry  Lilac
- Law  Purple
- Medicine  Green
- Musical Arts  Pink
- Optometry  Sea-Foam Green
- Philosophy  Dark Blue
- Veterinary Medicine  Gray

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel the color of which is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

- Graduate School  Black
- College of the Arts (B.F.A.)  White
- School of Music  Pink
- College of Biological Sciences  White
- College of Humanities  White
- College of Mathematical and Physical Sciences  White
- College of Social and Behavioral Sciences  White
- School of Journalism  Crimson
