Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio
Graduates and guests led by
Kenya L. Amburgey
Class of 1992

Oh! come let’s sing Ohio’s praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer’s heat or Winter’s cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Awarding of Diplomas

Recessional

President Gee looks forward to personally congratulating you and your graduate immediately following the ceremony in front of Larkins Hall, southeast of Ohio Stadium.

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, at 5:30 p.m. today.
Bernadine Healy, M.D.

Dr. Bernadine Healy was appointed by President George Bush as director of the National Institutes of Health (NIH) in April 1991. As director, Dr. Healy heads a federal agency with more than 16,000 employees and an annual budget of $9 billion. In addition to supporting the work of 4,000 scientists at NIH headquarters in Bethesda, Maryland, the agency is the major funder of biomedical research at universities and hospitals nationwide.

Shortly after her appointment, Dr. Healy launched the NIH Women’s Health Initiative, a $500 million effort to study the causes, prevention, and cures of diseases that affect women. She also established the Shannon Award grants to foster innovative approaches to biomedical research and keep talented scientists in a competitive system.

A native of New York City, Dr. Healy received her bachelor’s degree, summa cum laude, from Vassar College in 1965 and her M.D., cum laude, from Harvard School of Medicine in 1970. She completed postgraduate training in internal medicine and cardiology at the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine.

From June 1976 to February 1984, Dr. Healy was a professor of medicine at Hopkins’ School of Medicine and Hospital, serving as director of the Coronary Care Unit and as assistant dean for post-doctoral programs and faculty development.

In 1984, President Reagan named Dr. Healy deputy director of the White House Office of Science and Technology Policy. She served as a member of several White House advisory groups in this capacity.

Prior to her NIH appointment, Dr. Healy was chair of the Research Institute of the Cleveland Clinic Foundation, where she directed the research programs of nine departments, including efforts in cardiovascular disease, neurobiology, immunology, cancer, artificial organs, and molecular biology.

Among her other professional affiliations, Dr. Healy has served as president of the American Heart Association and as a member of the association’s board of directors since 1983. She is a member of the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences, the Board of Overseers of Harvard College, and a former trustee of Vassar College.

Ohio State is proud to welcome this distinguished physician, researcher, and humanitarian as speaker for its 320th commencement.
Recipients of Honors

Lena Bailey
Distinguished Service Award

Lena Bailey is emeritus dean of Ohio State’s College of Human Ecology. She retired in February 1992 after 31 years of service to the university. In 1961, Dr. Bailey joined the faculty of the then School of Home Economics and served as the school’s acting director in 1978-79 and 1982-83. Under her leadership, the school separated from the College of Agriculture in 1983, achieving status as its own college. In 1984, Dr. Bailey was named dean of the new college.

A native of Pike County, Kentucky, Dr. Bailey received a bachelor of science degree in home economics education from Morehead State University in Kentucky in 1954, a master of science degree from the University of Kentucky in 1958, and a doctorate in higher education from Ohio State in 1969.

A committed and active member of the university community, Dr. Bailey has served on numerous committees, both in the College of Human Ecology and universitywide, including the University Senate, the Commission on Dependent Care, the Nisonger Center Policy Council, the International Advisory Committee for the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Research Institute, and the Athletic Council.

Under her stewardship, the College of Human Ecology became one of the top-ranked programs in the country. Dr. Bailey’s commitment to excellence in the college led to the successful completion of a $1.5 million New Ventures New Visions campaign to accommodate a fast-growing curriculum and enrollment.

As a recognized leader in her field, she has consulted with colleagues at universities worldwide. Her extensive professional activities include service on the boards of the Association of Administrators of Home Economics, the American Home Economics Association, and the Ohio Home Economics Association.

Dr. Bailey has received numerous awards during her career, including the William H. Watson, Jr. Memorial Award from Ohio State’s University College, honoring her contributions to equal educational opportunities for all students. In 1985, the American Home Economics Association named her an Outstanding Leader.

Through her tireless dedication to her college, her university, and her profession, Lena Bailey exemplifies the ideal of service.

Shirley Anne Brooks-Jones
Distinguished Service Award

Shirley Brooks-Jones is emeritus assistant to the vice president for agricultural administration. She retired from the university in 1988 after 34 years of service in the College of Agriculture.

A native of Vinton County, Ms. Brooks-Jones arrived in Columbus fresh out of high school and accepted her first job as a clerk-stenographer in the Department of Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology at Ohio State in 1954. She was soon promoted to secretary and in 1960 was made secretary to the dean and the directors of the Ohio Cooperative Extension Service. In 1972 she was named assistant to the dean of the college. She accepted the position of assistant to the vice president in 1982, serving as primary liaison between the vice president and all agencies and organizations involved with programs of the College of Agriculture, the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center, Ohio Cooperative Extension Services, and the Agricultural Technical Institute.

While working full-time for the College of Agriculture, Ms. Brooks-Jones enrolled as a part-time student working toward a bachelor of arts degree in English with a minor in the history of art. She continues to pursue her degree and has been selected to Mortar Board honor society.

Ms. Brooks-Jones is an enthusiastic booster of Ohio State and has been a member of The Presidents Club since 1975. In 1981 she established the Shirley Brooks Scholarship in Agriculture, which is intended for students from her home area of southeastern Ohio. Since 1988, she has served as co-chair for Ohio State’s Campus Campaign, a fund-raising effort among the university’s faculty and staff that has raised more than $18 million for Ohio State programs and projects.

Ms. Brooks-Jones has traveled extensively as a member of Ohio State agricultural delegations and with People-to-People, an international organization devoted to better understanding between nations.

The recipient of numerous honors, Ms. Brooks-Jones holds a Meritorious Service Award from the Agricultural Alumni Association, an Outstanding Staff Award from the university, the Ohio State University Women’s Leadership Award for re-entry students, and is a member of the Ohio Agriculture Hall of Fame and the Farm Science Review Hall of Fame.

Ohio State is pleased to recognize with gratitude the dedication of this exceptional advocate.
Recipient of Honors

Thomas E. Cavendish
Distinguished Service Award

Thomas E. Cavendish retired last year as a managing partner with Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur, one of Ohio's leading law firms, where he headed the banking and commercial law department for the past 20 years.

A Columbus native, Mr. Cavendish received his bachelor of science in 1951 and his Juris Doctor degree summa cum laude in 1953 from Ohio State. He has spent his entire professional career at Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur and one of its predecessor firms. In addition, he has served as an adjunct professor of law in creditor and debtor rights and bankruptcy law at Capital University and Ohio State.

Mr. Cavendish has been a steadfast supporter of Ohio State's College of Law. As a longtime member of the college's National Council of alumni advisers, he was instrumental in directing the council to take a more active role in advising the dean on college-related issues. When it became apparent that the college was facing a critical space problem, Mr. Cavendish accepted the leadership role in the recently completed successful Law Centennial Campaign, which raised $16 million for the law building addition currently under construction.

In addition to his work with the 20-member Centennial Campaign Committee, he helped organize the college's Henry Folsom Page Society of major donors. As a member of the executive committee, he supported the activities of the society and the initiation of the Ohio State Law Award as a means to further enhance the College of Law's reputation.

In 1989, Mr. Cavendish served as chairman of Ohio State's Presidents Club executive committee, overseeing the redrafting of the organization's bylaws. He is a past president of the Columbus Bar Association, the Lawyers Club of Columbus, and the Ohio State Law Alumni Association. He has been an active representative to the Ohio Board on Uniform State Laws and served on the executive committee of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws from 1984-89.

Among his many honors are the Columbus Bar Service Award, the Ohio State Alumni Association's Ralph Davenport Mershon Award, and the Distinguished Alumnus Award of the College of Law.

Ohio State proudly recognizes the service, loyalty, and commitment of this dedicated individual.
Congratulations and Welcome to the Alumni Association

Congratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you’ve become an alumnus. For you, one era has passed, another is about to begin.

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the University in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the University to improve itself and its programs to better prepare today’s students for tomorrow’s citizenship.

We extend to you a year’s complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year’s subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the University’s continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and those others who helped you arrive here today go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

Cordially,

John T. Eby

Graduates with Honors

Criteria for graduating with honors are as follows:

Summa Cum Laude designates those graduating in the top 3% of the class.

Magna Cum Laude designates those graduating in the top 6% of the class.

Cum Laude designates those graduating in the top 10% of the class.

With Distinction requires successful completion of a Senior Honors Thesis and graduation in the top 25% of the class.

With Honors in the Liberal Arts requires successful completion of the Arts and Sciences Honors Contract and graduation in the top 25% of the class.

University Commendation designates those whose attainment of high academic standards is judged by the college to be especially meritorious.

This program is not an official graduation list

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this commencement program, printing deadlines sometimes prevent inclusion of graduates' names, or may result in use of names of persons not completing graduation requirements. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student’s permanent academic record, kept by the Office of The University Registrar, 202 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

The Academic Costume

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University Commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In the light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the University.

The Gown

Bachelor. Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.
Master. Black, long or short sleeves with a re-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.
Doctor. Black with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

The Hood

Bachelor. Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*
Master. Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.*
Doctor. Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.
* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and University administrative officers.
Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating Summa Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, Cum Laude, With Distinction, With Honors in the Liberal Arts, and With Honors in Pharmacy.

Photographs

As a courtesy to those persons receiving degrees today, please remain seated in the stands until the graduates have received their diplomas and have moved past the stadium gates. Photographs may be taken from the stands at any time during the ceremony. However, only press photographers will be permitted on the field.

Complimentary Programs

A limited number of programs are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Requests should be sent to the Office of Commencement and Official Events, 1120 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, OH 43210-1230.
