The Ohio State University Commencement

CORRECTED COPY

Time and change will surely show how firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Pomp, Circumstance, and Other Songs of a Lifetime

—by David Citino, Professor of English and Creative Writing and University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head,
not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes
we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental,

but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often,

music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony

is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD
of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger

over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.
I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents
of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—

kill some rabbits—to earn respect.
And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's
fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. *Lucky, lucky,

lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun*.
*I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun*.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere,

or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,
President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing
with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, *the richness of us,
precious difference*, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me
through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—

by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us

we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing
with pleasure or bathed in the blues.
We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library
for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first
"Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help

but feel, as is the sweet mother
I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here

were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor
our fathers and mothers, thank them

for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.
Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
*Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet* from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony
means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. *Summer's heat,

and winter's cold, The seasons pass,
the years will roll, Time and change*

will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves,
and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us,
the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly

all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—
to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

Awarding of Diplomas

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, at 5:30 p.m. today.

President Karen Holbrook looks forward to personally congratulating graduates and their guests immediately following the ceremony in front of Larkins Hall, southeast of Ohio Stadium.

Christopher Reeve

Actor, director, and activist Christopher Reeve is perhaps best known for his role in the film Superman. However, since he was paralyzed in an equestrian competition in 1995, Mr. Reeve has put a human face on spinal cord injury and has become a strong advocate for spinal cord research.

In 1999, Mr. Reeve became chairman of the board of the Christopher Reeve Paralysis Foundation—a national, nonprofit organization that supports research to develop effective treatments and a cure for paralysis caused by spinal cord injury and other central nervous system disorders. The foundation also allocates a portion of its resources to grants that improve the quality of life for people with disabilities.

Mr. Reeve has also campaigned to pursue research on embryonic stem cells and its potential to cure a wide variety of diseases and conditions including spinal cord injuries.

As vice chair of the National Organization on Disability, he works on quality of life issues for the disabled. In partnership with Senator Jim Jeffords (I-Vt.), he helped pass the 1999 Work Incentives Improvement Act, which allows people with disabilities to return to work and still receive disability benefits. Mr. Reeve is also on the board of directors of World T.E.A.M. Sports, a group that organizes and sponsors challenging sporting events for athletes with disabilities.

After graduating from Cornell University in 1974, Mr. Reeve pursued his dream of acting. He made his Broadway debut opposite Katharine Hepburn in A Matter of Gravity in 1976. Film credits include Superman in 1978 and subsequent sequels, as well as the Oscar-nominated The Remains of the Day. Mr. Reeve made his directorial debut with In the Gloaming on HBO in 1997. The film was nominated for five Emmy awards and won six Cable Ace Awards.

Mr. Reeve's autobiography, Still Me, was published by Random House in 1998 and spent 11 weeks on the New York Times Bestseller List. His second book, Nothing Is Impossible: Reflections on a New Life, was published in September 2002.

Mr. Reeve's community and political involvement pre-dates his spinal cord injury. Over the years, he has served as a national spokesperson on behalf of the arts, campaign finance reform, and the environment.

The Ohio State University is honored to welcome this inspirational champion for people with disabilities to address today's graduating class.

Robert D. Havener

Doctor of Public Service

Robert Havener is former director general of the International Maize and Wheat Improvement Center in Mexico, president emeritus of Winrock International Institute for Agricultural Development, and founding member and former senior consultant to the World Food Prize Foundation.

The Noble County native received his B.S. and M.S. degrees in agriculture from The Ohio State University in 1952 and 1958, respectively, and a M.P.A. from the Kennedy School of Government from Harvard University in 1972. He worked as an Extension agent in Ohio, as a meat merchandising manager in Chicago and Canton, and as a staff member at Michigan State University before joining the Ford Foundation in 1966, where he began his work with the Green Revolution through the foundation's programs in Pakistan and the Middle East.

Mr. Havener holds the distinction of having served as director of five International Agricultural Research Centers, which have made tremendous progress in reducing famine and hunger globally. These positions include director of the Agricultural Development Program in Pakistan (1966-71); director of the Arid Lands Agricultural Development Programs in Beirut, Lebanon (1972-76); director general of the International Maize and Wheat Improvement Center in Mexico (1978-85); interim director general of the Centro Internacional de Agricultura Tropical in Cali, Colombia (1994-95); and interim director general of the International Rice Research Institute in Los Banos, Philippines (1998-99).

As one of the Green Revolution's leaders, Mr. Havener has used his administrative skills to make an impact on international policy and programs designed to fight hunger, helping to quadruple world agricultural production. His visionary leadership creates an atmosphere in which his colleagues are able to attain the highest levels of accomplishment in their fields. Mr. Havener has also addressed the issue of integrating livestock with food crops—a key to improving nutrition at the household level in developing countries in Asia, Africa, and South America.

His honors include fellowship in the American Association for the Advancement of Science; the American Agricultural Editors' Association Distinguished Service Award; The Ohio State University College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences' Distinguished Alumni Award; membership in Ohio State's Animal Science Hall of Fame; and the National Agri-Marketing Association National Award for Agricultural Excellence.

Adrienne L. Kennedy

Doctor of Literature

An internationally recognized playwright, poet and adapter, Adrienne Kennedy is an alumna of The Ohio State University, receiving her bachelor's degree in education in 1953.

The Cleveland native's bittersweet memories of her college years—when her excitement at exploring literature was tempered by the racism she faced on campus, in the classroom, and in the community—are captured in her award-winning 1992 play, The Ohio State Murders, which was presented by Ohio State's Department of Theatre in 2001.

In recognition of the 50th anniversary of her graduation, the theatre department presented her Sleep Deprivation Chamber, co-written with her son, Adam Kennedy, as part of its regular performance season in May. The play recounts her son's own brush with racism four decades after her own experiences in Columbus.

Her first produced play, Funnyhouse of a Negro, appeared off-Broadway in 1963 and created a sensation with its stream-of-consciousness examination of a young African American woman living in a world dominated by European ideals of culture at odds with her African heritage. Produced by Edward Albee, the play won an Obie Award for off-Broadway theatre and became a cult hit. Over the next four decades, her work has become intensely personal and experimental.

Her major plays include The Lennon Play: In His Own Write (adaptation with John Lennon and Victor Spinetti, 1968); A Lesson in Dead Language (1970); A Movie Star Has to Star in Black and White (1976); She Talks to Beethoven (1989); June and Jean in Concert (1995), and Motherhood 2000 (2000). She has also published fiction and essays, and her 1987 memoir, People Who Led My Plays, recounts her

Cleveland childhood and the impact Ohio State has had on her writing career. Mrs. Kennedy is the only woman and African American to have a season devoted to her work at New York Shakespeare Festival – Public Theatre Signature Series in 1995.

Among Mrs. Kennedy's many honors are three Obie Awards; the 2003 Lifetime Achievement Award from the Anisfield-Wolf Book Awards; the Pierre Lecomte du Novy Award; awards from the American Academy of Arts and Letters; and fellowships from the Guggenheim, Rockefeller, and Lila Wallace Readers Digest Foundations and the National Endowment for the Arts. She has twice been the Chancellor's Distinguished Lecturer at the University of California, Berkeley, and has been a distinguished visiting artist and teacher at Harvard, Yale, and Stanford universities.

William E. Kirwan

Doctor of Education

William English “Brit” Kirwan became the third chancellor of the University System of Maryland in 2002. Prior to that, Dr. Kirwan served as president of The Ohio State University for nearly four years and as president of the University of Maryland, College Park, for nine years. Before becoming president, he was a member of the University of Maryland mathematics faculty for 34 years.

A native of Kentucky, Dr. Kirwan received his bachelor’s degree in mathematics from the University of Kentucky and his master’s and doctoral degrees in mathematics from Rutgers University. He joined Maryland’s faculty in 1964, achieving tenure in 1968 and full professorship in 1972. He is a member of several honorary and professional societies, including Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, the American Mathematical Society, and the Mathematical Association of America. A prolific scholar, he has written a number of articles in peer-reviewed professional journals.

As a leading figure in American higher education, Dr. Kirwan has served with distinction in positions of leadership in national associations of higher education. He is a member of the board of directors of the American Council on Education (ACE), the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges (NASULGC), the Business-Higher Education Forum, the National Visiting Committee for the National Science Digital Library and the Blue Ribbon Panel of the National Dialogue on Student Financial Aid. He was recently elected to join the 2002 class of fellows of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and he was appointed by President Bush to the Board of Advisors on Historically Black Colleges and Universities.

His leadership roles include chair-elect of NASULGC’s Commission on International Affairs, chair of its Council of Presidents, and chair of the Commission on Human Resources and Social Change. Dr. Kirwan was appointed by President Clinton to serve as a member of the National Commission on Mathematics and Science Teaching for the 21st Century and chaired the National Research Council’s Mathematical Sciences in the Year 2000 Committee.

His community service while in Columbus included membership of the board of directors of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce and the board of the Greater Columbus Chamber of Commerce, and he served as chair of the board of the Columbus Science and Technology Corporation and on the board of the Columbus Technology Leadership Council.

Doctor of Humane Letters

Ted Turner is chairman of Turner Enterprises, Inc., as well as chairman of three philanthropic foundations—the Turner Foundation, the United Nations Foundation, and the Nuclear Threat Initiative.

The Cincinnati native attended Brown University, where he was vice president of the Debating Union and commodore of the Yacht Club. He is a member of Brown’s board of directors.

He began his business career as an account executive for Turner Advertising Company (now Turner Broadcasting System), becoming president and chief operating officer in 1963, a position he held until the company’s merger with Time Warner in 1996. In 1976, he originated the “superstation” concept, transmitting the TBS signal to cable systems nationwide via satellite. In 1980, he inaugurated CNN, the world’s first, live, in-depth, round-the-clock news television network. Launched in 1985, CNN International serves as the company’s global news service, distributed in more than 210 countries.

One of the most influential philanthropists in the nation, Mr. Turner directs most of his charitable activities through his Turner Foundation, founded in 1991; the United Nations Foundation, created in 1997; and the Nuclear Threat Initiative, launched in 2001. The foundation supports environmental concerns, making hundreds of grants to conservation groups and environmental initiatives nationwide. His historic commitment of up to $1 billion to the United Nations Foundation supports four core priorities: women and population, children’s health, the environment, and peace and security. The Nuclear Threat Initiative works to close the growing gap between the threat from weapons of mass destruction and the global response. In addition, Mr. Turner originated the Goodwill Games in 1985 as an international, world-class, quadrennial, multi-sport competition.

As the country’s largest landowner,

Mr. Turner is committed to managing his lands in an economically sustainable and ecologically sensitive manner while promoting the conservation of native species. He is returning his land to its original range conditions, reintroducing endangered species and grazing buffalo, which do not require grain, instead of cattle. In 2002, he opened the first Ted’s Montana Grill in Columbus, serving bison burgers along with traditional American “comfort” food, with plans for 40 more such restaurants in the future.

He is the recipient of numerous honors, including Time Magazine’s 1991 Man of the Year and Cable and Broadcasting’s Man of the Century in 1999. A superior yachtsman, he successfully defended the 1977 America’s Cup and holds the 1979 Fastnet Trophy as well as four Yachtsman of the Year awards. As owner of the Atlanta Braves, he accepted the major league baseball team’s first World Championship trophy in 1995 on behalf of the team.

Gerald M. Reagan

Distinguished Service Award

Gerald Reagan is professor emeritus in The Ohio State University School of Educational Policy and Leadership in the College of Education. From 1992 to 2000, he served as secretary of the University Senate and secretary of the University Faculty, in which capacity he was involved with the administration and coordination of university-wide faculty governance activities.

Professor Reagan earned his B.A. degree in history from the University of Nebraska in 1957, his M.A. in history from Western Michigan University in 1959, and his Ph.D. in philosophy of education from Michigan State University in 1964. He joined Ohio State's faculty in 1969 after holding faculty positions at Michigan State, the University of Tennessee, UCLA, and Syracuse University. He became a full professor in the College of Education in 1971, retiring as professor emeritus in 2001.

During his tenure at Ohio State, Professor Reagan has guided some of the most important reform efforts the university has undertaken as it has focused its energies on academic excellence. From 1986 to 1990, he chaired the Special Committee for Undergraduate Curriculum Review, issuing what became known as the Reagan Report—a recommendation of a cohesive general education curriculum that has been implemented by the university. His service on other university committees has included the Advisory Council on Teaching Excellence, the Provost's Advisory Committee on Student Recruitment, the university's Fiscal Advisory Committee, the Faculty Compensation and Benefits Committee, and the Faculty Advisory Committee to the Board of Regents. As secretary of the University Senate, he brought selfless dedication and wise counsel as the university struggled with restructuring during the fiscal setbacks of the '90s.

Professor Reagan has served as director of several projects, including the Lilly Foundation Teaching Fellows Program and the Zirkle Program for Innovative Teaching. A prolific scholar, he has authored numerous articles in professional journals and has been a presenter at conferences worldwide. His teaching skills have been rewarded with a 1982 Ohio State Alumni Distinguished Teaching Award, and he is a charter member of the university's Academy of Teaching. He was selected as the Ohio State commencement speaker for autumn quarter 1989. In 1995, he received a Council of Graduate Students' Distinguished Service Award and, in 1998, a University Faculty Distinguished Service Award.

Micki A. Zartman

Distinguished Service Award

Micki Zartman has long been a strong advocate and volunteer on behalf of The Ohio State University and its College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences.

A native of New Mexico, Mrs. Zartman attended New Mexico University before receiving her B.S. degree in human ecology from Ohio State in 1991. While still in New Mexico, she served as state director of the Parents' Anonymous Child Abuse Prevention program, as a southern New Mexico state representative for UNICEF, in several leadership positions for the General Federated Women's Club of America, and as co-founder of Friends of Foreign Students at New Mexico State University. Her work there earned her an Outstanding Junior Women and Outstanding Young Women of America awards.

Her primary allegiance since coming to Ohio has been the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences. With endless energy, she has helped students from elementary school through college understand the role and importance of agriculture in the state of Ohio. Toward this end, she has recruited, trained, and coached dozens of undergraduate students annually as educators and tour guides on behalf of the college.

Mrs. Zartman has developed a number of ongoing program efforts to promote the college's mission. She reinstated the Dairy Tours, which now provide more than 5,000 elementary students annually the opportunity to visit Ohio State's dairy facilities. She created Scarlet and Gray Ag Day, recruiting 120 undergraduates to plan and execute the program, which brings young students to campus for a day of learning. Her Agricultural Research Program is a two-week program for inner-city high school students to help them become engaged with science through collaborative efforts with college faculty and staff. Scarlet and Gray Ag Biotechnology Days bring advanced placement science students to campus for immersion in cutting-edge science. Through her Service Learning Workshop, Mrs. Zartman sponsors six Ohio State students to attend a workshop at Shelbourne Farms in Vermont.

For her extensive volunteer efforts, Mrs. Zartman has been named an honorary member of Saddle and Sirloin, receiving its "Aunt" Award, and of the Agricultural Education Society. She is the recipient of a Meritorious Service Award from the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences and the Distinguished Service Award from Ohio State's Agricultural Education Society.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CLASS GIFT PROGRAM

For more than a century, Ohio State graduates have come together to present a Class Gift to celebrate graduation and benefit future generations of students at the university. The Class Gift tradition started in 1891 when, on the eve of graduation, students planted five elm trees on the Oval.

Since then, the Class Gift has been revised to meet the needs and desires of our graduates. The Class Gift now allows students to make a gift to any facet of the university that is important to them—their college, school, department or program, the libraries, medical center, or student organizations.

Each quarter of the 2003 calendar year, graduates are being asked to celebrate their commencement with a gift of $20.03. The total giving by the Class of 2003 will be tallied at the end of the calendar year as the 2003 Class Gift.

The Class Gift continues to be an opportunity for graduating students to express pride in their education. For many alumni, participation in the Class Gift is a meaningful step in a life-long relationship with Ohio State.

The university gratefully recognizes the efforts of the Class Gift Student Representatives and the generosity of the Class of 2003 in support of their alma mater.

This program is not an official graduation list

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this commencement program, printing deadlines sometimes prevent inclusion of graduates' names, or may result in use of names of persons not completing graduation requirements. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of The University Registrar, 202 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, with honors in business, with honors in the liberal arts, and with honors in pharmacy.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

Dentistry	Lilac
Law	Purple
Medicine	Green
Musical Arts	Pink
Optometry	Seafoam Green
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Veterinary Medicine	Gray

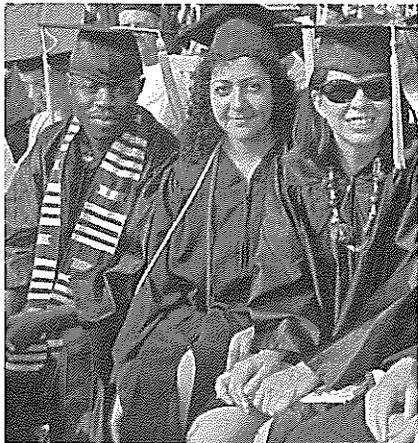

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (Ph.D.)	Gray

Photographs may be taken from the stands at any time during the ceremony. However, only press photographers are permitted on the field.

A professional photographer will take a photograph of each graduate as the diploma is awarded. A free color print of the photograph will be mailed to the graduate's address within one month after graduation. You may purchase additional photos, but you are not obligated to do so.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

No indoor facility on campus is large enough to accommodate the graduating class and 35,000 guests. In the case of inclement weather, every effort will be made to hold commencement as planned. Commencement will take place in Ohio Stadium, unless weather conditions are dangerous or severe, in which case the ceremony will be canceled.

Ohio State officials will be in continuous contact with the National Weather Service to monitor approaching weather. If it is feasible to delay the start of the ceremony and wait for clearing or less severe weather, the start of the ceremony may be delayed up to one hour. Should this happen, any changes will be announced onsite to graduates and guests. Graduates will remain in French Field House; guests are asked to remain in protected areas of Ohio Stadium. Your patience and cooperation will help facilitate this plan.

In case of cancellation

If it is determined that severe weather will not permit us to hold commencement, the ceremony will be canceled. Once cancellation has been officially announced, graduates should report to the following locations one hour after cancellation to receive their diplomas.

It is strongly advised that graduates and guests prearrange a meeting place in case the ceremony is canceled. Guests should not go to French Field House where most diplomas will be distributed to graduates. St. John Arena, Larkins Hall, Drake Center, and various locations on West Lane Avenue are some suggested meeting sites.

Diplomas will remain in the following locations until 3 p.m. on commencement day. Diplomas not picked up by 3 p.m. will be taken to the University Registrar's office in 320 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive. Diplomas will be available for pick-up there between 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., June 16-27. If a diploma remains unclaimed after June 27, it will be mailed to the home address on record within two to four weeks of commencement. Mailing addresses can be verified by contacting the University Registrar's office at (614) 292-1556; fax (614) 292-7199; or e-mail at commence@exchange.ureg.ohio-state.edu.
