Pomp, Circumstance, and Other Songs of a Lifetime

—by David Citino, Professor of English and Creative Writing and University Poet Laureate

(Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school. In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudemus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine.

As with those pros and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go, I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gum. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours, That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago. Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles! My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history. Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay. So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs. Some are here today in the flesh. Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song. When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater. Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mothe

We came of age here, with her help. Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you. Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day, Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who nee you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

Since joining the television program's staff in June 1990, she has conducted interviews with the famous and infamous in stories that have exposed corruption, explored unsolved crimes, and investigated consumer complaints. Her exclusive interview with Stephen Jones, defense attorney for convicted Oklahoma City bomber Timothy McVeigh, was broadcast on "60 Minutes."

A native of the Columbus area, Ms. Moriarty earned her bachelor's degree in behavioral sciences and her law degree from Ohio State in 1973 and 1977, respectively. As a young lawyer in Columbus, she became co-host of the local "PM Magazine" news program, which launched her career in broadcast journalism. Consumer reporting jobs in Cleveland, Chicago, and Baltimore eventually led her to CBS in 1986, where she contributed to "CBS This Morning" and "The CBS Evening News with Dan Rather."

Drawing on her training as a lawyer, she has explored some of the most important social and legal issues of our day, such as teenagers facing the death penalty, the abortion controversy, drug and alcohol abuse, battered woman's syndrome, and the battle to save premature babies.

Ms. Moriarty has received numerous honors, including nine national Emmy Awards for her work on "48 Hours" and the Overseas Press Award in 2001. The Consumer Federation of America presented her with the Consumer Media Service Award in 1998 for her "many contributions of both local and national significance as a consumer reporter." She is also the recipient of the 2003 Mortar Board Alumni Achievement Award.

Ms. Moriarty has returned often to Ohio State to donate her time and talents. She emceed the 2000 celebration of the completion of the university's five-year "Affirm Thy Friendship" fund-raising campaign and has also anchored a promotional video for the Moritz College of Law.

Ohio State proudly welcomes this respected broadcast journalist and one of its own alumnae to address today's graduating class.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

David W. Harvey

Doctor of Science

David W. Harvey, an internationally recognized geographer and social scientist, is Distinguished University Professor in Anthropology at the CUNY Graduate Center in New York. He also holds positions as senior research fellow at St. Peter's College Oxford and Miliband Visiting Fellow at London School of Economics.

A native of England, he received his bachelor's, master's, and Ph.D. degrees in geography from Cambridge University. After several years on the faculty at Bristol University, he moved to the United States and joined the Department of Geography and Environmental Engineering at The Johns Hopkins University, where he served from 1969 to 1987 and from 1993 to 2000. In the interim period from 1987 to 1993, he held the prestigious Halford J. Mackinder Chair of Geography at Oxford University.

Professor Harvey's interdisciplinary approach to the study of human geography is credited with helping to revolutionize the field of urban studies, bringing to the fore issues of geographically uneven development. His theory of historical-geographical materialism has become a powerful instrument for understanding human geographies.

He is the author of 10 scholarly books, including Explanation in Geography (1969), a work that provided quantitative geography with its philosophical foundations.

Following that publication, his work took a different direction, resulting in a number of highly acclaimed books, including The Limits to Capital (1982);

The Urbanization of Capital (1985); Consciousness and the Urban Experience (1985); The Condition of Postmodernity (1989), which was named by the British newspaper the Independent as one of the most important works of nonfiction to be published since 1945; and The New Imperialism (2003).

Among his numerous awards are the Gill Memorial Prize of the Royal Geographical Society (London) in 1972, the Outstanding Contributor Award of the Association of American Geographers in 1980, the Anders Retzius Gold Medal of the Swedish Society of Anthropology and Geography in 1989, the Patron's Medal of the Royal Geographical Society of London in 1995, and the Vautrin Lud International Prize for Geography in 1995.

Mr. Bazler is the recipient of the 1987 Ritter Award of the Ohio State Bar Foundation and the 1990 Ohio Bar Medal. He is the Ohio chair of the American Bar Association.

His service as an alumnus began with his graduation and continues to this day. He has been a member of the Miami County Ohio State Alumni Club since 1956 and the Moritz College of Law Alumni Association since 1953, serving as president in 1988. Together with his wife, Mr. Bazler co-chaired The Ohio State University National College and Schools Campaign in 1997 and now co-chairs the university's Miami Valley Major Gifts Committee. He has been a member of the National Council of the Moritz College of Law since 1978 and is one of the organizers of the college's Henry Folsom Page Society. In 2003, he chaired his law class reunion.

Manuel Tzagournis

Distinguished Service Award

Manuel Tzagournis, M.D., is vice president for health sciences and dean of the College of Medicine emeritus, and professor emeritus of internal medicine in the Division of Endocrinology, Diabetes, and Metabolism at The Ohio State University.

Dr. Tzagournis has been affiliated with Ohio State for more than half a century, enrolling as an undergraduate student in 1952. He received his bachelor's, master's, and medical degrees at the university and, in 1966, joined the staff of the Department of Medicine as an instructor, becoming full professor in 1974. With a specialty in endocrinology, his scholarly activities have focused on the links among coronary artery disease, atherosclerosis, and diabetes.

He was appointed dean and senior vice president in 1981 and 1982, respectively. During his tenure, the Medical Center was transformed from a college known primarily for teaching medical students to a contemporary health sciences center with three equally important missions of teaching, patient care, and research. In the same period, private support for the Medical Center increased tremendously. In 1982, the endowment stood at $16 million; by 1999, that figure had grown to $220 million.

Dr. Tzagournis led construction efforts that resulted in the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute, the Neuropsychiatry Building, the Davis Arthritis and Geriatrics Facility, the MRI Facility, and the Wiseman Hall Cancer Center laboratories. Under his leadership, a $12 million clinical research facility was built, funded by voluntary contributions from clinical departments and faculty. The building now bears his name and is an active site for genetics and cardiovascular research.

Dr. Tzagournis has been recognized by the Ohio Senate, the Ohio House of Representatives, and the U.S. House of Representatives for his outstanding service to the fields of medical education and patient care. Since his retirement in 2002, he continues to be active in his field of endocrinology by seeing patients and by leading the Diabetes Task Force to develop a blueprint for a new center. He also currently serves as president of the Columbus Medical Association.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CLASS GIFT PROGRAM

In 1891, a group of students planted five elm trees on the Oval the evening before graduation and the Class Gift tradition was born. Since that time, Ohio State students have continued to celebrate their commencements with gifts to the university.

For 2004, the Student Campaign Advisory Board is focusing its Class Gift efforts to help fund the renovation of "The Long Walk" on the Oval. Rich in history and tradition, this project touches the lives of most students who walk the Ohio State campus each day. Students may also wish to designate their Class Gift to their college or school's Annual Fund or any other fund they choose.

The Student Campaign provides an opportunity for students to become involved in Ohio State's unique campus-wide culture of giving. As part of this culture, the Class Gift is a special way for graduating students to express their thanks for the education they received and leave a legacy that will benefit future Ohio State students for years to come.

Graduates who wish to make their 2004 Class Gift may contact the Student Campaign coordinator in the Office of Annual Giving.

*Congratulations on your graduation, and we hope you look forward to this next chapter in your lifelong relationship as a Buckeye.
Thanks for your support!*

INCLEMENT WEATHER

No indoor facility on campus is large enough to accommodate the graduating class and 35,000 guests. In the case of inclement weather, every effort will be made to hold commencement as planned.

Commencement will take place in Ohio Stadium, unless weather conditions are dangerous or severe, in which case the ceremony will be canceled.

Ohio State officials will be in continuous contact with the National Weather Service to monitor approaching weather. If it is feasible to delay the start of the ceremony and wait for clearing or less severe weather, the start of the ceremony may be delayed up to one hour. Should this happen, any changes will be announced onsite to graduates and guests. Graduates will remain in French Field House; guests are asked to remain in protected areas of Ohio Stadium. Your patience and cooperation will help facilitate this plan.

In case of cancellation

If it is determined that severe weather will not permit us to hold commencement, the ceremony will be canceled. Once cancellation has been officially announced, graduates should report to the following locations one hour after cancellation to receive their diplomas.

It is strongly advised that graduates and guests prearrange a meeting place in case the ceremony is canceled. Guests should not go to French Field House where most diplomas will be distributed to graduates. St. John Arena, Larkins Hall, Drake Center, and various locations on West Lane Avenue are some suggested meeting sites.

Diplomas will remain in the following locations until 6:30 p.m. on commencement day. Diplomas not picked up by 6:30 p.m. will be taken to the University Registrar's office in 320 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive. Diplomas will be available for pick-up there between 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., June 14-25. If a diploma remains unclaimed after June 25, it will be mailed to the home address on record within two to four weeks of commencement. Mailing addresses can be verified by contacting the University Registrar's office at (614) 292-1556; fax (614) 292-7199; or e-mail at commence@exchange.ureg.ohio-state.edu.
