Spring Commencement 2009

POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time.

Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta.

I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school.

In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.

I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect.

And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun.

*I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun*.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,

President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us,
precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.

Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues.

We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.

So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.

Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.

Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

John Glenn

John Glenn is a former U.S. Senator and one of the nation's first astronauts.

A native of New Concord, Sen. Glenn graduated from New Concord High School and enrolled in Muskingum College. While a junior in college, he took flying lessons at the New Philadelphia airport, earning his pilot's license in 1941. Just after the attack on Pearl Harbor in December of that year, he left college to enter military flight training and was commissioned in the Marine Corps in 1943. He was awarded a bachelor of science in engineering from Muskingum in 1962.

As a Marine fighter pilot, he flew combat missions in World War II and the Korean conflict. After Korea, he became a test pilot and, in 1957, set a transcontinental speed record, traveling from Los Angeles to New York in 3 hours and 23 minutes. In 1959, he was selected as one of seven NASA Mercury astronauts. Three years later, on February 20, 1962, he piloted the "Friendship 7" spacecraft, making history as the first American to orbit the earth. He completed a successful three-orbit mission and returned to a hero's welcome.

Sen. Glenn retired from the Marine Corps as a colonel in 1965 and became a business executive with Royal Crown International. He became active in Democratic politics and early environmental protection efforts in Ohio. In 1974, he was elected to the U.S. Senate, carrying all 88 counties in Ohio. He was reelected in 1980 with the largest margin of votes in Ohio history. Ohioans returned him to the Senate for the third time in 1986, and, in 1992, he again made history by being the first popularly elected senator from Ohio to win four consecutive terms. He retired from the Senate in 1999.

Sen. Glenn returned to space in 1998 as a member of NASA's Space Shuttle Discovery mission STS-95 during which the crew supported a variety of research payloads and investigations on space flight and aging.

Prior to his retirement from the Senate, in October 1997, Sen. Glenn donated his papers and memorabilia to The Ohio State University. In September 1998, Ohio State announced the establishment of the John Glenn Institute for Public Service and Public Policy, now the John Glenn School of Public Affairs, housed in Page Hall.

Sen. Glenn is the recipient of hundreds of honors. He holds the Air Medal with 18 Clusters for his combat service and has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross on six occasions. He is also the recipient of the Congressional Space Medal of Honor.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Anna C. Glenn

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Annie Glenn has had a lifelong interest in community service, particularly programs for children, the elderly, and the handicapped.

Born in Columbus, she grew up in New Concord, Ohio, where she became a childhood playmate of John H. Glenn Jr. They became high school and college sweethearts, both attending Muskingum College, where she earned her bachelor of arts degree in music and secretarial science in 1942. The couple married in 1943.

Afflicted with a severe stuttering problem since childhood, Mrs. Glenn completed an intensive program at the Communications Research Institute at Hollins College in Roanoke, Virginia, in 1973. Although she does not consider herself "cured," she speaks freely and gives speeches at public events.

In 1983, she received the first national award of the American Speech and Hearing Association for "providing an inspiring model for people with communicative disorders." The National Association for Hearing and Speech Action honored her in 1987 by asking her to present the first annual Annie Glenn Award for achieving distinction despite a communicative disorder. She is a member of the advisory panel of the Central Ohio Speech and Hearing Association and has served on the National Deafness and Other Communications Disorders Advisory Council of the National Institutes of Health.

She is a member of the advisory boards for the National Center for Survivors of Childhood Abuse and the National First Ladies' Library and is a member of the board of directors of the International Longevity Center - USA in New York. With her husband, she serves on the Muskingum College board of trustees and the advisory board of The Ohio State University John Glenn School of Public Affairs. In addition, she is an adjunct assistant professor in Ohio State's Department of Speech and Hearing Science.

Among her many honors are membership in the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame and induction into the Hall of Excellence of the Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges. She also had the honor of christening the U.S.S. Ohio, the first in its class of Trident nuclear ballistic missile submarines.

Ernest L. Mazzaferri Sr.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Ernest Mazzaferri is emeritus professor and former chair of The Ohio State University Department of Internal Medicine.

The Cleveland native earned his bachelor of science degree from John Carroll University in 1958 and his medical degree from The Ohio State University in 1962. After completing his internship, residency, and postdoctoral studies at Ohio State, he joined the university's faculty in 1968, becoming associate professor and director of the division of endocrinology and metabolism in 1973. In 1977, he joined the University of Nevada School of Medicine as professor and chair of medicine. He returned to Ohio State in 1984 as professor and chair of internal medicine and professor of physiology until his 1999 retirement. In 2001, he became adjunct professor of medicine in the Division of Endocrinology at the University of Florida and was named Courtesy Professor of Medicine in 2007.

During his years on Ohio State's medical faculty, Dr. Mazzaferri focused his clinical and laboratory research activities on the diagnosis and treatment of thyroid cancer, authoring more than 200 peer-reviewed publications, two major textbooks, and a number of other clinical books on endocrinology. He was instrumental in the development of clinical practice guidelines, bringing Ohio State national recognition as a leader in developing this model of patient care.

As chair of the Department of Internal Medicine, he saw the department grow from approximately 60 to 160 members and oversaw the funding for a new subspecialty clinic, the Stoneridge Medical Center, which eventually became one of the busiest multispecialty clinics in Columbus. Under his leadership, the department also formed a well-respected Thyroid Cancer Clinic.

During his Ohio State tenure, Dr. Mazzaferri became a Master of the American College of Physicians, an award given to approximately 300 people nationally. He was a member of the board of directors of the American Board of Internal Medicine, serving as chair of the board's Subspecialty Board of Endocrinology and Diabetes from 1999 to 2003.

His honors include the prestigious Paul Starr Award for clinical investigators from the American Thyroid Association, the Endocrine Society's Distinguished Educator Award, the Clinician of the Year Award from the American Diabetes Association Ohio Affiliate, and the American College of Endocrinology Distinguished Clinician Award.

The Ohio State University 2009 Class Gift

On the eve of graduation in 1891, a group of Ohio State students planted five elm trees on the Oval. Now, more than a century later, "The Five Brothers" grove still grows and the tradition of bestowing a Class Gift upon the university continues.

Through the years, graduating seniors have helped shape the campus experience of countless students, alumni, and friends of Ohio State by offering a Class Gift. The chimes of Orton Hall, "The Long Walk" on the Oval, the beautification of Mirror Lake, and University Hall's tower clock are but a few of the special projects funded by students wishing to commemorate their time spent at this great university.

Now, the Class of 2009 has an opportunity to leave a legacy of its own and participate in Ohio State's unique history of giving. By making a gift to Ohio State, graduating seniors can express appreciation for the education they have received while leaving an indelible mark on their alma mater, to be enjoyed by students for years to come.

As we continue to build for the future by building on the foundations of the past, graduates who wish to commit $20.09 (or other amount) as part of the 2009 Class Gift may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the graduates of 2009 and thanks them for their contributions to the Ohio State community.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GEE

Today marks your official launch. My expectations for you are boundless, just as they are for Ohio State. After all, you are now a graduate of one of the finest universities in the world. I hope that makes you feel both proud and somewhat pressured.

You might start by asking yourself two questions, as most new graduates who are contemplating a move will do: What should I keep? What should I give away? Although I am no longer young enough to know everything, I do know enough to offer this advice. Some things to keep: An open mind, as challenged by your professors. The memory of Orton Hall's chimes, because that is tradition. The sound of jackhammers at the Ohio Union and Thompson Library, because that is progress. Keep close the friend you made during orientation, when you were both excited and overwhelmed. Lock the best of this place in your heart and stow it away for the times you will need sustenance. Set out tomorrow morning, pick up just the right wind, and launch the next phase of your life.

You will have to jettison some things. Keep away from people who diminish your dreams, who deride your ambitions. Give up your doubts, and that little voice inside your head that says, "You can't." Ohio State says you can.

Even as you may struggle to make ends meet, you have so much to give away. Give your time and talent to a cause you believe in. Give your hope to make a better world, because you come from a great public university that believes in doing the world's good. Give your courage when it is not convenient, your integrity now that it is most needed, your honesty in all things large and small. Give your compassion, because the world often seems to be running short. Give it your best shot, every day.

Like me, you will look to Ohio State as a harbor of high aspirations. When you tell people that you are an Ohio State graduate, you will be telling them our story, singing our song. You will represent the great promise of this land-grant institution to make a difference in others' lives. You will know, firsthand, that Ohio State changes lives.

Go where your calling takes you, along a route that might meander. Go beyond the routine, the expected, and the easy. Like this university, you are capable of greatness. As you prepare to cast off, I hope that Ohio State has lived up to all your expectations. Now it is your turn to live up to ours. And send me a postcard every now and then to let me know how you are doing.

O-H!

E. Gordon Gee
President

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

In the case of inclement weather, every effort will be made to hold commencement as planned. Commencement will take place in Ohio Stadium, unless weather conditions are dangerous or severe, in which case the ceremony will be canceled. No indoor facility on campus can accommodate the graduating class and 35,000 guests.

On commencement day, Ohio State officials will be in continuous contact with the National Weather Service to monitor approaching weather. If it is feasible to delay the start of the ceremony and wait for clearing or less severe weather, the start of the ceremony may be delayed up to one hour. Should this happen, any changes will be announced on-site to graduates and guests. Graduates will remain in the assembly locations; guests are asked to remain in protected areas of Ohio Stadium. Your patience and cooperation will help facilitate this plan.

In case of cancellation

If it is determined that severe weather will not permit us to hold commencement, the ceremony will be canceled. Once cancellation has been announced, graduates should report to the following locations one hour after cancellation to receive their diplomas.

It is strongly advised that graduates and guests prearrange a meeting place in case the ceremony is canceled. Guests should not go to South Stadium or RPAC where most diplomas will be distributed to graduates. St. John Arena, Drake Center, and various locations on West Lane Avenue are some suggested meeting sites.

Diplomas will remain in the following locations until 5 p.m. on commencement day. Diplomas not picked up by 5 p.m. will be taken to the University Registrar's office in 320 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive. Diplomas will be available for pick-up there between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., June 15-26. If a graduate's diploma remains unclaimed after June 26, it will be mailed to the home address on record within two to four weeks of commencement. Graduates can verify/change their mailing addresses by contacting the University Registrar's web site at www.ureg.ohio-state.edu. Click on "current students," then "Buckeye Link," and "change addresses."
