Commencement 2011

OHIO STATE

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,

And songs to Alma Mater raise;

While our hearts rebounding thrill,

With joy which death alone can still.

Summer's heat or Winter's cold,

The seasons pass, the years will roll;

Time and change will surely show

How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head,
not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes
we move to, shower and shave by,
study, write to. Not just the incidental,

but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often,

music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year

or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD
of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger

over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.
I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents
of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—

kill some rabbits—to earn respect.
And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's
fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. *Lucky, lucky;

lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun*.
*I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun*.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years
for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere,

or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,
President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing
with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us,
precious difference, the grand multiplicity
of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me
through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—

by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us

we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing
with pleasure or bathed in the blues.
We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library
for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first
"Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help

but feel, as is the sweet mother
I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here

were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor
our fathers and mothers, thank them

for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise. And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater, Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
*Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet* from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony
means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. *Summer's heat,

and winter's cold, The seasons pass,
the years will roll, Time and change*

will surely show How firm thy friendship.
O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves,
and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us,
the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly

all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—
to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

John A. Boehner

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE

John A. Boehner is the 53rd Speaker of the United States House of Representatives. When he took the gavel as the chamber's presiding officer, Speaker Boehner became the first Ohioan to lead the House since 1931. His rise to the Speaker's Office in January 2011 capped a long rise that began in the private sector and in grass roots community service.

The second oldest of 12 brothers and sisters, Speaker Boehner has lived in southwest Ohio his entire life. He grew up mopping floors at his family's business, Andy's Café, and worked to pay his way through Xavier University, becoming the first member of his family to earn a college degree. He went on to run a successful small business in the plastics and packaging industry, where he created jobs, met a payroll, and saw firsthand how government policies impact the American private sector.

Now second in line of succession to the presidency after the vice president, Speaker Boehner's public service began when he was elected to his neighborhood homeowners association. Following successful candidacies for township board of trustees and the Ohio General Assembly, in 1990 Mr. Boehner won the seat in the United States Congress that he continues to hold. As a junior member in the 435-member House of Representatives, Mr. Boehner first gained national attention for his leadership on the federal budget and reforms of House practices.

In 1994, Mr. Boehner helped his party win its first majority in the House in four decades. He continued his pursuit of a balanced budget, and was the author of the Freedom to Farm Act. During the next decade, Mr. Boehner took on major leadership roles, including House Republican Conference Chairman and chair of the House Committee on Education and the Workforce, where he successfully worked for enactment of a number of major bipartisan reform laws.

On November 17, 2010, his 61st birthday, Mr. Boehner was elected by his colleagues to serve as the Speaker-designate; he was sworn in as Speaker of the House on January 5, 2011. Leading in a time when federal governance is split between both major parties, Speaker Boehner has won praise for his ability to maintain the priorities of his party while also working collaboratively across the political spectrum with dignity and civility.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

J. Lyle Bootman

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

J. Lyle Bootman is a professor of pharmacy, medicine, and public health at the University of Arizona and has served as dean of the university's College of Pharmacy since 1987. He is considered one of the foremost experts in pharmacoeconomics, an analytical approach to assessing the costs and effectiveness of drug therapy for health care systems and society. His research in this area led to the creation of the University of Arizona Center for Health Outcomes and Pharmacoeconomic (HOPE) Research and the nonprofit Healthcare Transformation Institute, of which he is founding director.

As a pioneer of pharmacoeconomics, Dr. Bootman has conducted seminal research leading to a greater understanding of health care systems and how to improve patient health care value, patient outcomes, and services. His studies in the mid-1990s on drug-related morbidity and mortality heavily influenced long-term changes in the field of pharmacy that reduced medication-related errors and increased the quality of care. Dr. Bootman has authored more than 285 research articles, books, and monographs, including the first textbook on the topic, Principles of Pharmacoeconomics. He also served as co-chair of an Institute of Medicine committee that produced a highly influential report on "Preventing Medication Errors."

Dr. Bootman is considered to be one of the 50 most influential pharmacists in the United States by American Druggist. His list of awards spans more than 25 years, including the George Archambault Award, the highest honor given by the American Society of Consultant Pharmacists; the Latiolais Honor Medal, the highest honor in managed health care by the Pharmaceutical Care Management Association; and the Joseph P. Remington Honor Medal, the highest honor given by the profession of pharmacy to recognize distinguished service and lifetime contributions.

After earning a bachelor of pharmacy degree from the University of Arizona, Dr. Bootman completed a clinical pharmacy residency at the National Institutes of Health. He holds master's and doctoral degrees from the University of Minnesota, where he was honored with the alumni Outstanding Achievement Award.

Carter G. Phillips is the managing partner of the Washington, D.C., office of Sidley Austin LLP. Renowned as a powerful advocate on behalf of his clients, Mr. Phillips is among the most dynamic and successful Supreme Court litigators in U.S. history. He has argued 71 cases before the Supreme Court, which is the most of any lawyer currently in private practice.

Before joining Sidley Austin, Mr. Phillips clerked for Judge Robert A. Sprecher on the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and for Chief Justice Warren E. Burger of the United States Supreme Court. Beginning in 1981, he served for three years as assistant to the Solicitor General for the United States. In 1984, he joined Sidley Austin, becoming partner in 1986 and managing partner in 1995.

Mr. Phillips is the recipient of numerous honors, including being named one of the 45 top lawyers under 45 by The American Lawyer, one of the 100 most influential lawyers in America by the National Law Journal in 2006, "Best Lawyer in the Specialty of Appellate Law" in The Best Lawyers in America, 2007–2011, and the #1 rated lawyer in Washington, D.C., by Super Lawyers Magazine for each of the past three years. Numerous other recognitions include the Lewis F. Powell Award for Business Advocacy in 2007 from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. He has been listed among Legal Times "Champions, Visionaries, and Pioneers" in Washington's legal community.

Mr. Phillips has been a great friend and supporter of his alma mater, The Ohio State University. As a guest lecturer in the Moritz College of Law, he has offered students a window into appellate practice before the Supreme Court. Mr. Phillips also regularly hosts Ohio State students and faculty in Washington to discuss their research and career plans.

He is a member of the American Law Institute and the American Academy of Appellate Lawyers, and is a Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers.

The Ohio State University 2010-2011 Class Gift

On the eve of graduation in 1891, a group of Ohio State students planted five elm trees on the Oval. Now, more than a century later, "The Five Brothers" grove still grows and the tradition of bestowing a Class Gift upon the university continues.

Through the years, graduating seniors have helped shape the campus experience of countless students, alumni, and friends of Ohio State by offering a Class Gift. The chimes of Orton Hall, "The Long Walk" on the Oval, the beautification of Mirror Lake, and University Hall's tower clock are but a few of the special projects funded by students wishing to commemorate their time spent at this great university.

Now, the Classes of 2010 and 2011 have an opportunity to leave a unique legacy and participate in Ohio State's history of giving. By making a gift to Ohio State, graduating seniors can express appreciation for the education they've received while leaving an indelible and environmentally sustainable mark on their alma mater. The Cunz Hall Rain Garden will be enjoyed by students for years to come.

As we continue to build for the future by building on the foundations of the past, graduates who wish to commit $20.11 (or other amount) as part of the 2010-2011 Class Gift may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the graduates of 2011 and thanks them for their contributions to the Ohio State community.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GEE

Graduates:

Perhaps the last thing you want to do today, after four or more years of reading textbooks and articles assigned by professors, is read one more piece from one more “expert.” I understand perfectly. Today is a day for celebration, for throwing your arms high above your head and shouting, “Yes! I did it!”

But nonetheless, I include this letter in your commencement program because I believe a bit of extra encouragement is in order. You will leave the university today with a hard-won degree in your hand, and with hope in your heart. For each of you, hope looks different. One graduate may be searching for an entry-level job in a highly competitive field, while another will be entering graduate school and a new set of academic challenges, and still another might be completing requirements for professional advancement. But as different as your paths may be, they share the convergence of both this occasion and this great university.

Here is what I hope for you: a future in which your Ohio State experience resonates, where being a Buckeye is just the start of your success. The world needs you and the knowledge and skills you gained at this university. I am confident that you will make your university proud.

Sincerely,

E. Gordon Gee
President

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD)	Gray

College of Arts and Sciences
BA	White

BS, BS Design	White

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and university administrative officers.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Photographs may be taken from the stands at any time during the ceremony. However, only press photographers are permitted on the field.

A professional photographer will take a photograph of each graduate as the diploma is awarded. A free color print of the photograph will be mailed to the graduate's address within one month after graduation. You may purchase additional photos, but you are not obligated to do so.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

In the case of inclement weather, every effort will be made to hold commencement as planned. Commencement will take place in Ohio Stadium, unless weather conditions are dangerous or severe, in which case the ceremony will be canceled. No indoor facility on campus can accommodate the graduating class and 40,000 guests.

On commencement day, Ohio State officials will be in continuous contact with the National Weather Service to monitor approaching weather. If it is feasible to delay the start of the ceremony and wait for clearing or less severe weather, the start of the ceremony may be delayed up to one hour. Should this happen, any changes will be announced on-site to graduates and guests. Graduates will remain in the assembly locations; guests are asked to remain in protected areas of Ohio Stadium. Your patience and cooperation will help facilitate this plan.

In case of cancellation

If it is determined that severe weather will not permit us to hold commencement, the ceremony will be canceled. Once cancellation has been announced, graduates should report to the following locations one hour after cancellation to receive their diplomas.

It is strongly advised that graduates and guests prearrange a meeting place in case the ceremony is canceled. Guests should not go to French Field House where most diplomas will be distributed to graduates. St. John Arena, Drake Center, and various locations on West Lane Avenue are some suggested meeting sites.

Diplomas will remain in the following locations until 4 p.m. on commencement day. Diplomas not picked up by 4 p.m. will be taken to the Student Consolidated Services Center (SCSC) on the first floor of the Student Academic Services (SAS) building, 281 West Lane Avenue. Diplomas will be available for pick-up there between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., June 13-24. If a graduate's diploma remains unclaimed after June 24, it will be mailed to the permanent address on record within two to four weeks of commencement. Graduates can verify/change their mailing addresses by navigating to the BuckeyeLink web site at buckeyelink.osu.edu. Click on "My Student Center," then scroll down to the "Personal Information" section to view the address. Click on the "Permanent Address" hyperlink if there is a need to edit it.
