Four Hundredth Commencement

SPRING QUARTER • JUNE 10, 2012
POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME
—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate
(Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spumes of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolfo in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scivo, I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of grad school. In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly for words. I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes cum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-o-o. Canta re, Wo-o-o-o. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours. That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

As a member of the Ohio State faculty for more than 20 years before his retirement in 2010, Professor Harris resolutely devoted his life’s work to advancing and enriching the culture of the arts at the university. He was the driving force behind such influential and meaningful events as the long-running Contemporary Music Festival, a collaboration between the School of Music and the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, and the Lawrence and Isabel Barnett Symposium.

Professor Harris has touched the lives of thousands as a teacher, colleague, and collaborator. His leadership and influence truly reach around the globe, as evidenced by his service on many national and international boards. He is past president of the International Council of Fine Arts Deans. In addition, he remains active in the local arts community and has devoted his time and energy to such organizations as the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, Pro Musica, BalletMet, and the King Arts Complex.

His uniquely decorated career has garnered myriad honors, including a commission from the Serge Koussevitzky Foundation for a major orchestral work. This resulted in his most recent composition, Symphony No. 2, which was premiered by the Columbus Symphony Orchestra earlier this year. He has received numerous other commissions, including the Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge Foundation in the Library of Congress, St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, Radio France, Cleveland Orchestra, Cleveland Chamber Symphony, and the Festival of Contemporary Music at Tanglewood.

Professor Harris has been the recipient of both a Guggenheim and a Fulbright Fellowship. He received the ASCAP Deems Taylor Award in 1989 for the W.W. Norton publication of the correspondence between Alban Berg and Arnold Schoenberg, of which he was co-editor. In 1991, the American Academy and Institute of Arts and Letters honored him with an award in composition.

Professor Harris received his BMus and MMus in composition from the University of Michigan.

The Ohio State University

2012 Class Gift

On the eve of graduation in 1891, a group of Ohio State students planted five elm trees on the Oval. Now, more than a century later, “The Five Brothers” grove still grows and the tradition of bestowing a Class Gift upon the university continues.

Through the years, graduating seniors have helped shape the campus experience of countless students, alumni, and friends of Ohio State by offering a Class Gift. The chimes of Orton Hall, “The Long Walk” on the Oval, the beautification of Mirror Lake, and University Hall’s tower clock are but a few of the special projects funded by students wishing to commemorate their time spent at this great university.

Members of the 2012 class have an opportunity to leave their unique legacy and participate in Ohio State’s history of giving. By making a gift to Ohio State, graduating seniors can express appreciation for the education they have received by giving to the area that has meant the most to them like scholarships, colleges, offices, departments, programs, athletics, or student life.

As we continue to build for the future by building on the foundations of the past, graduates who wish to commit $20.12 or other amount as part of the 2012 Class Gift may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the graduates of 2012, and thanks them for their contributions to the Ohio State community.
Graduates:

Take a moment and look around you. Your friends, family, and fellow new alumni are together today to celebrate one of life’s major milestones—your successful passage through four (or more!) rigorous years of higher education.

Believe it or not, I once also wore the robes of a young college graduate and I can assure you I still vividly remember the feeling of that enormous achievement—one that I hope prompts you to stand taller and walk a bit more proudly.

In the spirit of the occasion, I offer a few words of encouragement. The world today is full of unique and exciting opportunities for college graduates. Indeed, whatever discipline you have decided to pursue for yourself, endless possibilities are now open to you to create, to repair, to heal, to inform, and to inspire in previously unimaginable ways. My belief is that wherever there is a job to be done, no one is better suited for it than a graduate of Ohio State.

Personally, I am more confident than ever before in the knowledge and skills you have earned by making your way through this great university. The wisdom you have gained will make you valuable stewards of the community in which you belong, as well as the world that you inherit. More and more frequently, it is a world that calls for inspiration and imagination. But this—to my mind—means only that everyone should grow very accustomed to hearing, with increasing frequency: O-H-I-O!

Sincerely,

E. Gordon Gee
President

Congratulations to those of you receiving degrees this year from the Graduate School as we celebrate our 100th anniversary. Today, over 1,750 new master’s and nearly 225 PhDs will join the more than 157,500 graduate alumni since the Graduate School’s founding in 1911. To put this in perspective, the Graduate School awarded just two PhDs and 52 master’s degrees in its second year of existence. The growth from then to now is extraordinary and helps demonstrate why Ohio State and Ohio State graduate alumni are known all over the world.

Of the many recurring themes from the past 100 years, our national conversation has once again turned to the significant value that graduate degree holders add to any employment sector. This growing demand has a truly global reach. Employers need individuals who demonstrate those qualities that have always distinguished students pursuing graduate degrees—they are forward thinking, creative, and motivated. The PhD, for example, prepares individuals to engage in independent research and to creatively formulate new questions. With these skills, our graduates are uniquely prepared to address and help solve the challenges facing humanity that arise every day in our increasingly complex world.

During the Graduate School’s centennial year, we are underscoring the value of graduate education through the following projects:

- Creating opportunities for new, professionally oriented master’s programs that meet local, state, and national needs
- Exploring new directions in doctoral education
- Hosting a summit at Ohio State focusing on career pathways for graduate students
- Celebrating the achievements of our current graduate students

Additionally, I am reaching out to Ohio State Graduate School alumni to see how they are using their degrees. If you are one of today’s graduates, or alumnus or alumna, I am eager to hear your story and gain your perspective on our graduate activities at Ohio State. You can participate in these discussions on the Graduate School blog at go.osu.edu/GradSchoolblog. I welcome all of you to write me directly at osmer.1@osu.edu.

Sincerely,

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

In the case of inclement weather, every effort will be made to hold commencement as planned.

Commencement will take place in Ohio Stadium, unless weather conditions are dangerous or severe, in which case the ceremony will be canceled. No indoor facility on campus can accommodate the graduating class and 50,000 guests.

On commencement day, Ohio State officials will be in continuous contact with the National Weather Service to monitor approaching weather. If it is feasible to delay the start of the ceremony and wait for clearing or less severe weather, the start of the ceremony may be delayed up to one hour. Should this happen, any changes will be announced on-site to graduates and guests. Graduates will remain in the assembly locations; guests are asked to remain in protected areas of Ohio Stadium. Your patience and cooperation will help facilitate this plan.

In case of cancellation

If it is determined that severe weather will not permit us to hold commencement, the ceremony will be canceled. Once cancellation has been announced, graduates should report to the following locations one hour after cancellation to receive their diplomas.

It is strongly advised that graduates and guests prearrange a meeting place in case the ceremony is canceled. Guests should not go to French Field House or RPAC where most diplomas will be distributed to graduates. St. John Arena and various locations on West Lane Avenue are some suggested meeting sites.

Diplomas will remain in the following locations until 4 p.m. on commencement day. Diplomas not picked up by 4 p.m. will be taken to the Student Service Center (SSC) on the first floor of the Student Academic Services (SAS) building, 281 West Lane Avenue. Diplomas will be available for pick-up there between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., June 11-15. If a graduate’s diploma remains unclaimed after June 15, it will be mailed to the permanent address on record within two to four weeks of commencement. Graduates can verify/change their mailing addresses by navigating to the BuckeyeLink website at buckeyelink.osu.edu. Click on “My Student Center,” then scroll down to the “Personal Information” section to view the address. Click on the “Permanent Address” hyperlink if there is a need to edit it.

POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

I say, rather, the richness of us, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago. Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles. My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in History. Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see. Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 70's and 33's, tapes, CDs—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field, Men (and women) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn. I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay. So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs. Some are here today in the flesh. Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song. When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise. And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater. Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother. We came of age here, with her help. Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you. Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day, Summer's heat, and winter's cold. The seasons pass, the years will roll. Time and change will surely show how firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward. You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak— and sing— to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
Carmen Ohio

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.
