COMMENCEMENT • WINTER 2005

Pomp, Circumstance, and Other Songs of a Lifetime

—by David Citino, Professor of English and Creative Writing and University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school. In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours, That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago. Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles! My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history. Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay. So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs. Some are here today in the flesh. Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song. When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater. Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help. Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you. Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany; this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

President Holbrook looks forward to personally congratulating graduates in French Field House immediately following the ceremony.

Eugenie C. Scott

Doctor of Science

Eugenie C. Scott is executive director of the National Center for Science Education, Inc., a pro-evolution nonprofit science education organization with members in every state.

Dr. Scott received her Ph.D. in biological anthropology from the University of Missouri in 1974. After serving on the faculties of the University of Kentucky and the University of Colorado, she left traditional academia in 1986 to dedicate her professional life to the advancement of scientific literacy in the United States, becoming the executive director of the National Center for Science Education, now in Oakland, California. Since then she has worked nationwide to communicate the scientific method to the general public and to improve how science is taught in schools.

She is frequently called upon by the print, radio, and television media as a spokesperson for “the scientific view” when conflicts arise between scientific and pseudoscientific explanations. She is nationally recognized as a proponent of church/state separation, serving on the National Advisory Council of Americans United for Separation of Church and State and on the National Advisory Council of Americans for Religious Liberty.

As a human biologist, Dr. Scott’s primary research has been in medical anthropology and skeletal biology. The author of Creationism vs Evolution: An Introduction, she has many published papers and monographs, has served as chair of the Ethics Committee of the American Anthropological Association, as president of the American Association of Physical Anthropologists, and has chaired the Anthropology Section of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS).

Dr. Scott is a member of the advisory council of the AAAS Dialogue on Science, Ethics, and Religion committee. She has also served on the board of directors of the Biological Sciences Curriculum Study. An internationally recognized expert on the creation/evolution controversy, she has consulted with the National Academy of Sciences, several states’ Departments of Education, and legal staffs in both the United States and Australia.

Dr. Scott is a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and a member of Sigma Xi. She has been honored by scientific societies, educators, and community organizations, including the National Science Board’s Public Service Award, the American Society of Cell Biology’s Bruce Alberts Award, and the Geological Society of America’s Public Service Award. The California Science Teacher Association awarded her its Distinguished Service Award, and she has also been honored by the American Humanist Association, the Skeptics Society, and the Center for Inquiry.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Gerald E. Brown

Doctor of Science

Gerald E. Brown, Distinguished Professor of Physics at the State University of New York at Stony Brook, is one of the world's leading theoretical nuclear physicists.

A native of South Dakota, Professor Brown received his B.A. from the University of Wisconsin and his M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from Yale University. He also holds a D.Sc. degree from the University of Birmingham, U.K., where he taught mathematical physics from 1955 to 1960. In 1960, he was offered a full professorship by Niels Bohr at the Nordic Institute for Theoretical Atomic Physics in Copenhagen, where he continued to hold a visiting professorship until 1985. In 1964, he accepted a professorship at Princeton University, and, in 1968, he moved to Stony Brook to head up a new nuclear theory group. In 1988, he was named Distinguished Professor of Physics.

Professor Brown's work has been deeply influenced by three renowned physicists, whom he calls the "eagles of physics": Gregory Breit at the University of Wisconsin; Rudolph Peierls at the University of Birmingham; and Hans Bethe at Cornell University. Over his equally distinguished career, Professor Brown has made seminal contributions to our understanding of the electron interactions in heavy atoms, the nucleon-nucleon interaction, supernovae, and binary stellar systems involving black holes or neutron stars. His more than 370 scholarly papers and four books deal with such diverse fields as astrophysics and atomic, nuclear, and particle physics. He has trained more than 60 graduate students, many of whom are professors of physics throughout the world.

His many awards include the Silver Medal of the University of Helsinki, the Haederpris of the Niels Bohr Institute, the Boris Pregel Award of the New York Academy of Sciences, the Max Planck Medal of the German Physical Society, and the Yale Graduate School Alumni Association's Wilbur Lucius Cross Medal. He is one of a few physicists to have received two prizes from the American Physics Society: the 1982 Bonner Prize and the 2001 Bethe Prize. He is a member of the National Academy of Sciences.

Yvette McGee Brown

Distinguished Service Award

Yvette McGee Brown is president of the Center for Child and Family Advocacy, at Columbus Children's Hospital. She is a former judge in the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas.

A native of Columbus, Judge McGee Brown earned her B.S. in journalism at Ohio University in 1982 and her juris doctorate at The Ohio State University in 1985. She began her career in public service as an Ohio assistant attorney general, becoming chief counsel of the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction and, later, of the Ohio Department of Youth Services. In 1992, she was elected to the Domestic Relations and Juvenile Division of the Common Pleas Court. At age 32, she became the youngest and the first African American elected to this court. As the lead juvenile judge, she spearheaded the SMART program, a truancy and educational neglect prevention program now operating in more than 40 elementary schools. She also initiated the creation of a Family Drug Court.

She left the bench in 2002 to create the Center for Child and Family Advocacy, which works to provide prevention, training, education, research, and advocacy along with treatment to break the cycle of family violence. She speaks nationally on parenting, child welfare, and juvenile justice issues, and authors a monthly column in Columbus Parent Magazine. She is featured weekly in a segment called Straight Talk on WBNS 10-TV.

Judge McGee Brown has remained an invaluable resource to the Moritz College of Law since receiving her degree, sharing her time and expertise with the college's Justice for Children Project, serving on educational panels, and mentoring and hiring law students. She has served as a member of the college's National Alumni Council, the National Council for Ohio State Women, and the Alumni Advisory Council. In 2003, she was elected to a five-year term on the Alumni Association board of directors.

She has received numerous honors for her public service and community activism, including the university's William Oxley Thompson Alumni Award, the Champion of Children Award from the Columbus Montessori Education Center, the YWCA Women of Achievement Award, and the Junior League Community Service Award.

Raymond A. Miller

Distinguished Service Award

Raymond A. Miller became alumni coordinator in the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences following his 2002 retirement as assistant dean of student affairs in that college.

Dr. Miller earned his undergraduate degree in agriculture in 1966, his M.S. in agricultural education in 1968, and his Ph.D. in agricultural education in 1976, all from The Ohio State University. Following service in the United States Army, he joined the counseling staff in the then College of Agriculture in 1972, and, in 1976, became an assistant professor of agricultural education. In 1981, he was named assistant dean of student affairs, where he coordinated student activities, recruitment of students, financial aid programs, alumni programs, and the College Honors Program. During his tenure as dean, he continued to teach in the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences.

During his more than three decades of service to his alma mater, Dr. Miller had a personal impact on countless students. He served as faculty member of the Ohio Staters service organization for many years, 10 of them as faculty treasurer. He continues to play a leadership role in Alpha Zeta, an undergraduate professional agriculture fraternity, creating an endowment with his wife, Linda, in support of leadership training programs for students. In 1999 and 2000 he served as faculty director in residence for the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences' Dominican Republic Study Abroad Programs, and this year he was faculty director in residence for the Alpha Zeta Partners' winter quarter

Brazil Study Abroad Program.

Among his many creative volunteer accomplishments are the Ag College Chorale, which he conducted to provide a constructive outlet for students who love music, and the Ag Fallfest, which brings college alumni back to campus. His professional leadership roles include the presidency of the National Agricultural Alumni and Development Association in 2000-2002 and the presidency of Gamma Sigma Delta International in 1988-90.

Dr. Miller's many honors include the 1992 Ohio State University Alumni Association Jo Failer Award for Student Service, induction into the Farm Science Review Hall of Fame in 2002, and the 2003 National Agricultural Alumni and Development Association Distinguished Service Award.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CLASS GIFT PROGRAM

In 1891, a group of students planted five elm trees on the Oval the evening before graduation and the Class Gift tradition was born. Since that time, Ohio State students have continued to celebrate their commencement with gifts to the university.

For 2005, the Student Campaign Advisory Board is focusing its Class Gift efforts to help fund the Beautification of Mirror Lake. Rich in history and tradition, this project touches the lives of most students who walk the Ohio State campus each day. Students may also designate their Class Gift to their college's or school's Annual Fund or any other fund they choose.

The Student Campaign provides an opportunity for students to become involved in Ohio State's unique campus-wide culture of philanthropy. As part of this culture, the Class Gift is a special way for graduating students to express their thanks for the education they received and leave a legacy that will benefit future Ohio State students for years to come.

Graduates who wish to make their 2005 Class Gift may contact the Student Campaign Coordinator in the Office of Annual Giving or go to the web site at www.giveto.osu.edu/classgift.

Congratulations on your graduation, and we hope you look forward to this next chapter in your lifelong relationship as a Buckeye.

Thanks for your support!

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT HOLBROOK

---

Commencement represents a culmination and celebration of your accomplishments at The Ohio State University. It is the most solemn and yet the most joyous and exhilarating ceremony held at any university. It is a day for academia, family, and friends to gather and share with you their tears and laughter, their love and hope, and their tremendous pride for your many years of hard work and achievement. It is a day you will long remember.

Today, you join a family of more than half a million Ohio State graduates and step into a new world of rich and challenging opportunities. As graduates of The Ohio State University, you have good reason to feel a strong sense of pride and accomplishment—as well as excitement about a promising future. Working with your professors and the university community, you have built a well-rounded education and polished it with relevant experience. Upon this foundation, your education will continue to grow and help you create a lifetime of productivity, personal fulfillment, and civic responsibility.

Through time and change, you will surely remember your years at Ohio State as some of the happiest, most important, and most influential experiences of your life. And I am confident that your firm bonds to this great university will only grow stronger. Please accept my congratulations and personal best wishes on this very special day.

Karen A. Holbrook
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Congratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you have joined the ranks of Ohio State alumni. For you, one era has passed, and another is about to begin.

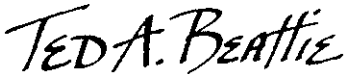

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the university in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the university to improve it and its programs to better prepare today's students for tomorrow's citizenship.

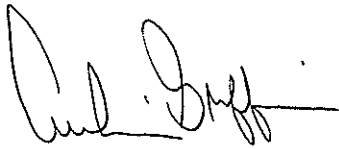

We extend to you a year's complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year's subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the university's continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and all those who helped you reach this day go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

Cordially,

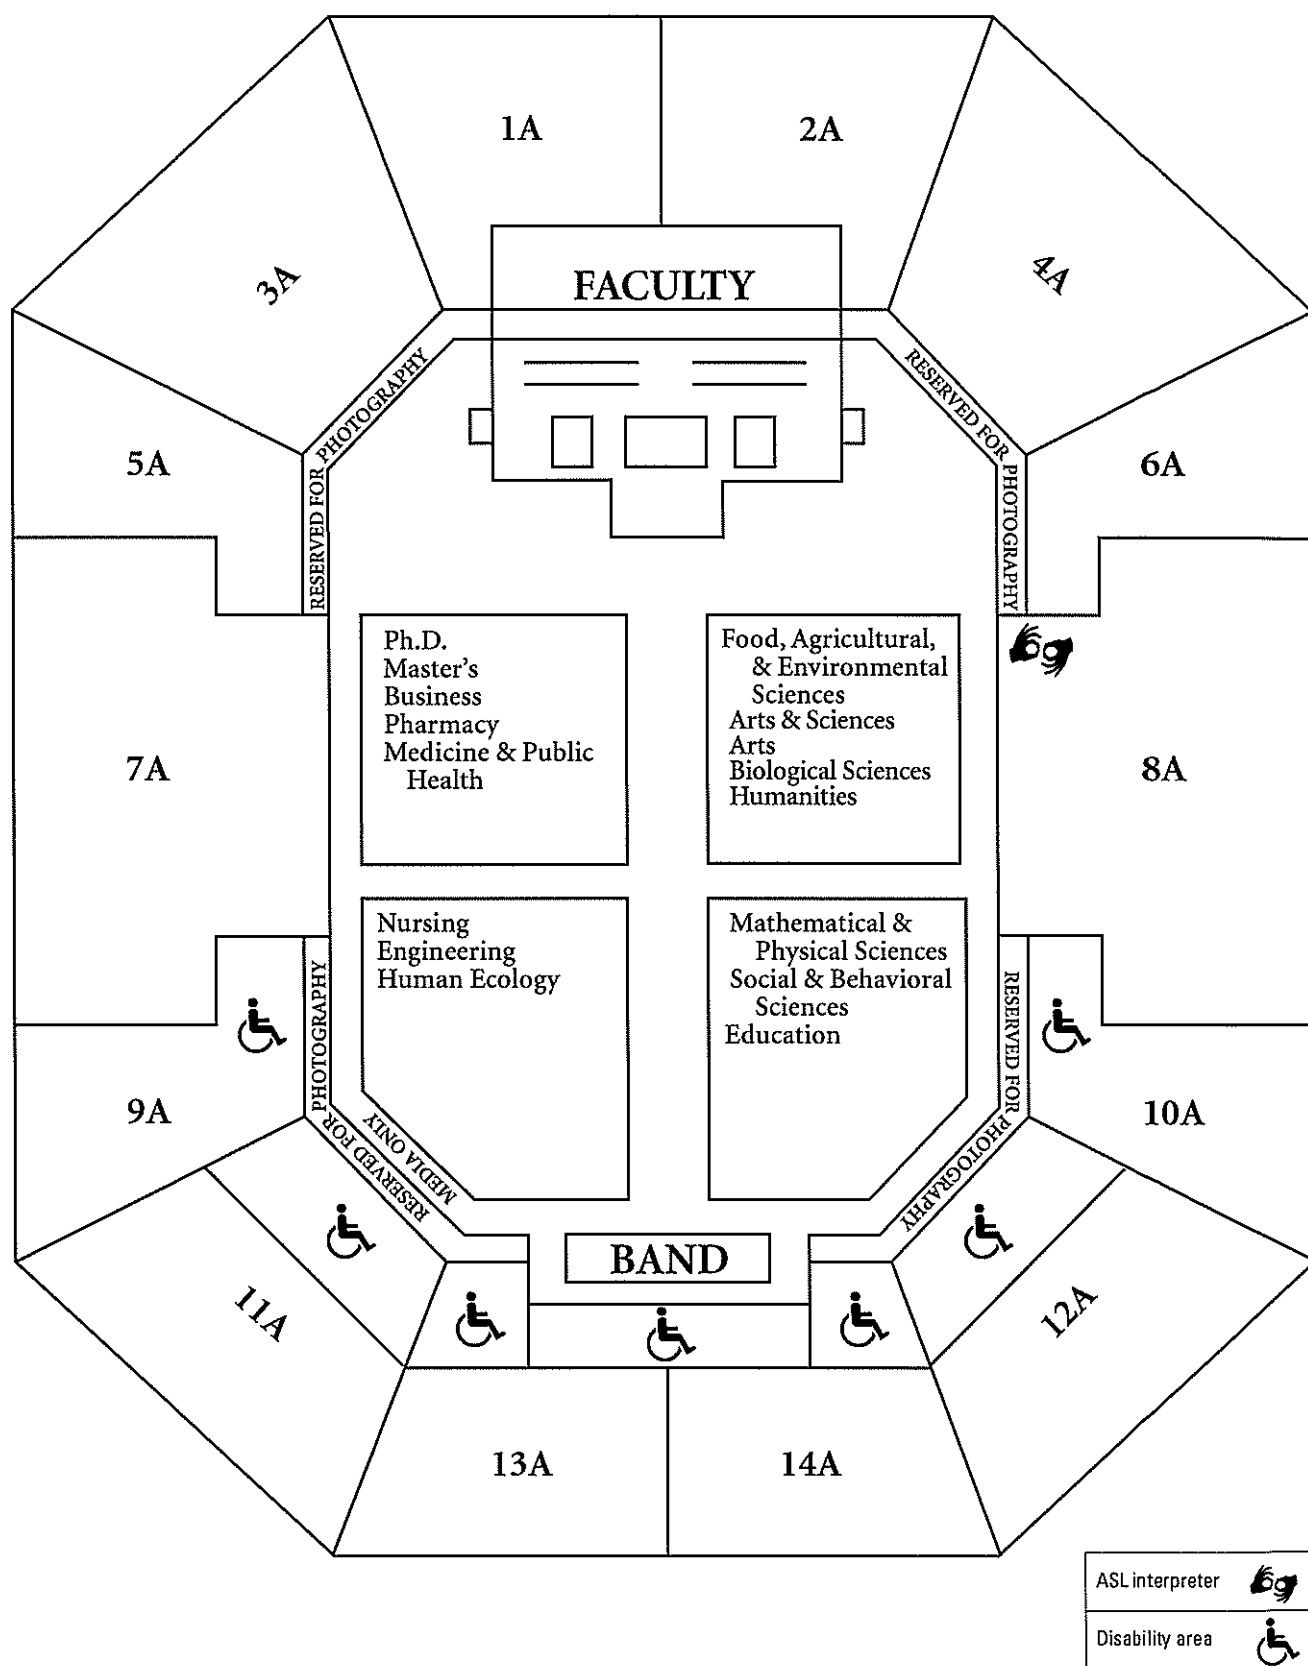

Ted A. Beattie
Chair, Board of Directors

Archie Griffin
President and CEO
The Ohio State University Alumni Association

This program is not an official graduation list

This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Winter Quarter 2005, as of 5:00 p.m., March 11, 2005, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades.

Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of The University Registrar, 320 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

 Thomas James Matthews III,
 Miramar, FL
 Gideon David Maxwell, Mt. Vernon
 Amanda Elizabeth Messmore,
 Beaver Creek
 Elaine M. Mitchell, Coshocton
Summa Cum Laude

Brandy Dawn Morehouse, Heath
 Amanda Diane Pastol, Somerset
Summa Cum Laude
 Deanna Renee Rizek, Columbus
Cum Laude
 Reina Ivett Rodriguez, Delaware
Magna Cum Laude
 Mary Kathleen Rucker, Mt. Perry
Cum Laude
 Keith F. Schroeder, Ottawa
 Paula Jean Somerville, Point Pleasant, WV
Cum Laude
 Daniel Kearney Swick, Heath
Cum Laude
 Christine Elizabeth Wiley, Pataskala

College of Engineering

Dean: William A. Baesleck III

Bachelor of Science in Aviation

Brian Thomas Smith, Medina

Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering

Raymond Charles Newlin IV, Columbus
Cum Laude

Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering

Darin Kyle Aveyard, Huber Heights
 Jason Alan Bednarczyk, Chillicothe
 Wade R. Dennis, Marion
 John Joseph Gallagher, Barnesville
 John David Henderson, Powell
 Keng Yong Lee, Johor, Malaysia

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencement derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to bal-lad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study or degree received.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:
