Winter Commencement 2009

POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head,
not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes
we move to, shower and shave by,
study, write to. Not just the incidental,

but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often,

music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance

of the life you began freshman year
or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD
of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger

over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.
I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
*Up above the world so high, like a diamond
in the sky*. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents
of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King
(King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—

kill some rabbits—to earn respect.
And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford,

"Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines
of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's
fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-o-o. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. *Lucky, lucky,

lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun.*
*I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun*.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years
for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere,

or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,
President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing
with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, *the richness of us,
precious difference*, the grand multiplicity
of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—

because my family labored long nights
around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me
through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—

by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves
of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us

we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing
with pleasure or bathed in the blues.
We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library
for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first
"Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help

but feel, as is the sweet mother
I lost last year, the one who gave me
the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here

were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor
our fathers and mothers, thank them

for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. *O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs
to Alma Mater raise*. Alma mater.
Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
*Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place
of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet*

from crying. We won't forget you.
Now, even though this ceremony
means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. *Summer's heat,

and winter's cold, The seasons pass,
the years will roll, Time and change*

will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves,
and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us,
the calling of your name today is music
to our ears. Sing that name proudly

all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—
to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Yvette McGee Brown

Yvette McGee Brown is president of the Center for Child and Family Advocacy at Nationwide Children's Hospital in Columbus.

Prior to her current role, she served as a judge in the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas, Division of Domestic Relations and Juvenile Court from 1993 to 2002. She was the first African American and the second woman to be elected to this court. As judge, she founded programs that continue to assist area young people today: SMART, a truancy and educational neglect prevention program, and the Family Drug Court.

A 1985 graduate of Ohio State's Moritz College of Law with an undergraduate degree from Ohio University, Judge McGee Brown has had a distinguished career focused on improving the lives of young people. As president of the Center for Child and Family Advocacy, she leads an effort that serves as a national model created to break the cycle of child abuse and family violence.

A collaboration between Nationwide Children's and the Columbus Coalition Against Family Violence, the center brings together police, prosecutors, child welfare social workers, prevention specialists, domestic violence advocates, and Nationwide Children's medical and therapeutic staff. As president of the center, Judge McGee Brown is responsible for the child abuse and behavioral health services at Nationwide Children's Hospital.

Her community commitment extends to many organizations. She is currently the chair of The Ohio State University Alumni Association Board of Directors and serves on the boards of directors of M/I Homes, Inc., Fifth Third Bank of Central Ohio, the Columbus Coalition Against Family Violence, and the Ohio Network of Child Advocacy Centers. She is the former chair of the United Way of Central Ohio and YWCA Columbus board of directors.

A native of Columbus, Judge McGee Brown is a 2008 inductee to the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame. She has been honored for her community service with the 2005 Distinguished Service Award from The Ohio State University, the William Oxley Thompson Alumni Award from The Ohio State University Alumni Association, the 2007-08 Moritz Public Service Award from Ohio State's Moritz College of Law, the Medal of Merit Alumni Award from Ohio University, the Champion of Children Award, and the YWCA Woman of Achievement Award.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Charles K. Brain

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

One of the world's leading paleontologists, Charles Brain is emeritus curator of the Transvaal Museum in Pretoria, South Africa. He served as director of the museum from 1968 to 1991, leading it to international recognition as the country's premier natural history museum.

Dr. Brain received BS degrees in geology and zoology in 1950 and a PhD in geology in 1957 from the University of Cape Town. During his subsequent career, his research moved across the disciplines of earth sciences, paleontology, biology, anthropology, and zoology. He is best known for his pioneering work on taphonomy—the study of the processes of death, deposition, and fossilization.

He directed the paleontological excavation at Swartkrans Cave in South Africa, which ran for 35 years, producing 240,000 fossils. Through his meticulous documentation of each fossil, he determined that the earliest hominid ancestors of humans had not been powerful hunters, as previously thought, but ended up as prey of predatory leopards and saber-toothed cats. The cave also yielded evidence of the earliest use of controlled fire ever found, going back more than a million years, indicating that humans were evolving into increasingly intelligent creatures. His 1981 book Hunters or the Hunted? An Introduction to African Cave Taphonomy is considered a classic text in the field of paleoanthropology.

The author of some 200 publications in his fields of study, Dr. Brain continues in his retirement to study the origin and evolution of the earliest animals, searching for fossils of ancestral invertebrates in limestones of Namibia. In 2006, he received the South African National Research Foundation's Top Award for Lifetime Achievement. His many other recognitions include election as a Fellow of the Royal Society of South Africa and numerous honorary degrees. He currently serves as a research associate at the Bernard Price Institute for Palaeontological Research and as chief scientific advisor to the Palaeontological Scientific Trust (PAST), which raises money for paleontological research and education on an Africa-wide basis.

Jules Pretty

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Jules Pretty is professor of environment and society in the Department of Biological Sciences at the University of Essex in the United Kingdom. He served as head of the department from 2004 to 2008.

He holds a BA in biology from the University of York (UK) and an MSc and DIC in environmental technology from the Imperial College in London. He joined the International Institute for Environment and Development (IIED) in London in 1986 as a research associate in the Sustainable Agriculture Programme, becoming associate director and then director in 1991. During his 10 years at IIED, he helped shape the emerging field of sustainable agriculture.

Internationally recognized for his work on sustainable agriculture practices in more than 50 countries, he works to balance environmental integrity with the competing demands of economic growth and modernization. He has written more than 150 scholarly papers and authored, coauthored, or edited 16 books, including This Luminous Coast, published this year; The Earth Only Endures; The Earthscan Reader in Sustainable Agriculture; The Pesticide Detox; and Agri-Culture. He is chief editor of the International Journal of Agricultural Sustainability. A popular invited speaker, he has made more than 250 presentations at international conferences, universities, government agencies, and local groups.

Professor Pretty is a member, advisor, or trustee of numerous research and development organizations in the United Kingdom and abroad. He is a fellow of the Institute of Biology and the Royal Society of the Arts and deputy chair of the British government's Advisory Committee on Releases to the Environment (ACRE). From 2001 to 2007 he served as A.D. White Professor-at-Large for Cornell University.

A regular contributor to local and national BBC and World Service radio networks, he was presenter and writer of a two-part radio series, "Ploughing Eden," for BBC Radio 4 in 1999, co-writer and presenter in a BBC TV Correspondent Series, The Magic Bean, in 2001, and a panelist for Radio 4's The Moral Maze in 2007.

He is the recipient of a 1997 international award from the Indian Ecological Society and, in 2006, received the Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE) award for services to sustainable agriculture.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

John G. Thompson DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

John G. Thompson is Rouse Ball Professor Emeritus of Pure Mathematics at Cambridge University and Graduate Research Professor of Mathematics at the University of Florida.

Born in Kansas, he received his BA degree from Yale University in 1955 and his doctorate from the University of Chicago in 1959. After a year as an assistant professor at Harvard, he returned to Chicago, serving as professor of mathematics from 1962 to 1968. He joined the Cambridge University faculty in 1970, serving until 1993 when he moved to the University of Florida.

Professor Thompson's revolutionary ideas, first published in 1963 with Walter Feit, transformed the field of finite group theory, providing the intellectual fuel for a monumental project that culminated in 2004 with the classification of all finite simple groups. This has had an enormous impact not only in all areas of mathematics, but also in the chemical theory of crystals, the physical theory of quantum mechanics, and the national security field of cryptology and encryption in which several of Thompson's students and colleagues have played leadership roles.

As an internationally renowned mathematician, Professor Thompson has made further contributions to the Galois theory, representation theory, coding theory, and the theory of finite projective planes. He was awarded the 2008 Abel Prize by the Norwegian Academy of Science and Letters for his "profound achievements in algebra and in particular for shaping modern group theory."

In 1970, he was awarded a Fields Medal for his work in the theory of finite groups. The Fields Medal, awarded every four years at the International Congress of Mathematicians, is the highest recognition that can be bestowed for mathematics research and is considered the equivalent of a Nobel Prize in this discipline.

He was also the recipient in 1965, along with Feit, of the Cole Prize from the American Mathematical Society. His other awards include the Senior Berwick Prize from the London Mathematical Society, the Sylvester Medal from the Royal Society, the Wolf Prize, and the Poincaré Prize. He was elected to the National Academy of Sciences in 1971 and the Royal Society of London in 1979. He was awarded the National Medal of Science in 2000.

George W. Paulson DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

George W. Paulson is emeritus professor of neurology and founder and former chair of the Department of Neurology at The Ohio State University. He served as chief of staff of University Hospital from 1993 to 1995.

Dr. Paulson received his BS in zoology in 1952 from Yale University and his MD in 1956 from Duke University. He joined the Ohio State College of Medicine staff in 1967 as an associate professor of neurology, earning a reputation as an expert clinician, teacher, and investigator, particularly of movement disorders. He was voted Teacher of the Year in 1971 by the graduating medical school class. That same year, he left the university to go into private practice, where he led a number of programs at Riverside Methodist Hospital in Columbus and continued to teach medical residents.

In 1983 he returned to Ohio State to lead the new Department of Neurology, serving as chair until 1991. He was named holder of the Kurtz Endowed Chair in Neurology in 1983, a position he held until his 1999 retirement. He played a leading role in attracting a National Parkinson's Foundation Center of Excellence to Ohio State. He has published more than 250 articles, many editorials and abstracts, and six books.

Throughout his career, Dr. Paulson has won equal eminence as a historian of medicine and medical events at Ohio State and in Ohio, including works on deafness in people in Perry County; on William Thornton, MD, designer of the U.S. Capitol; the function and demolition of the large state hospital that stood on Sullivant's Ridge on Columbus' west side; a study of Ralph Fanning, an Ohio State professor of art history; and a biography of Arthur G. James. He was the principal moving force in the development of the Medical Heritage Center in Ohio State's Prior Health Sciences Library, and he helped develop and continues to teach a popular course on the history of Ohio State in the College of Humanities.

Dr. Paulson has served on a number of university and community committees, including the Rare Book Committee at Ohio State, and is former chair of the Medical Library Board at the university's Medical Center. He is currently president of the board of the State Library of Ohio.

The Ohio State University 2009 Class Gift

On the eve of graduation in 1891, a group of Ohio State students planted five elm trees on the Oval. Now, more than a century later, "The Five Brothers" grove still grows and the tradition of bestowing a Class Gift upon the university continues.

Through the years, graduating seniors have helped shape the campus experience of countless students, alumni, and friends of Ohio State by offering a Class Gift. The chimes of Orton Hall, "The Long Walk" on the Oval, the beautification of Mirror Lake, and University Hall's tower clock are but a few of the special projects funded by students wishing to commemorate their time spent at this great university.

Now, the Class of 2009 has an opportunity to leave a legacy of its own and participate in Ohio State's unique history of giving. By making a gift to Ohio State, graduating seniors can express appreciation for the education they have received while leaving an indelible mark on their alma mater, to be enjoyed by students for years to come.

As we continue to build for the future by building on the foundations of the past, graduates who wish to commit $20.09 (or other amount) as part of the 2009 Class Gift may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the graduates of 2009 and thanks them for their contributions to the Ohio State community.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GEE

Today marks your official launch. My expectations for you are boundless, just as they are for Ohio State. After all, you are now a graduate of one of the finest universities in the world. I hope that makes you feel both proud and somewhat pressured.

You might start by asking yourself two questions, as most new graduates who are contemplating a move will do: What should I keep? What should I give away? Although I am no longer young enough to know everything, I do know enough to offer this advice. Some things to keep: An open mind, as challenged by your professors. The memory of Orton Hall's chimes, because that is tradition. The sound of jackhammers at the Ohio Union and Thompson Library, because that is progress. Keep close the friend you made during orientation, when you were both excited and overwhelmed. Lock the best of this place in your heart and stow it away for the times you will need sustenance. Set out tomorrow morning, pick up just the right wind, and launch the next phase of your life.

You will have to jettison some things. Keep away from people who diminish your dreams, who deride your ambitions. Give up your doubts, and that little voice inside your head that says, "You can't." Ohio State says you can.

Even as you may struggle to make ends meet, you have so much to give away. Give your time and talent to a cause you believe in. Give your hope to make a better world, because you come from a great public university that believes in doing the world's good. Give your courage when it is not convenient, your integrity now that it is most needed, your honesty in all things large and small. Give your compassion, because the world often seems to be running short. Give it your best shot, every day.

Like me, you will look to Ohio State as a harbor of high aspirations. When you tell people that you are an Ohio State graduate, you will be telling them our story, singing our song. You will represent the great promise of this land-grant institution to make a difference in others' lives. You will know, firsthand, that Ohio State changes lives.

Go where your calling takes you, along a route that might meander. Go beyond the routine, the expected, and the easy. Like this university, you are capable of greatness. As you prepare to cast off, I hope that Ohio State has lived up to all your expectations. Now it is your turn to live up to ours. And send me a postcard every now and then to let me know how you are doing.

O-H!

E. Gordon Gee
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

On behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we congratulate you on your academic achievement! For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin. In receiving your degree today, you are joining a distinguished body of more than 440,000 Ohio State alumni who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

Your university has provided you with a well-rounded education that will help you become the leaders of tomorrow. We encourage you to build on your many accomplishments by doing something great: pay forward to your communities and make a difference in the lives of others.

We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay connected virtually: ohiostatealumni.org, and through membership in The Ohio State University Alumni Association. We want to be your gateway in connecting with Ohio State. Therefore, your first year of membership is complimentary and includes many benefits, such as a subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will help you stay informed about the university's ambitious agenda and connected with friends and classmates. In addition, the Alumni Association offers many educational programs for its members and networking opportunities, including alumni clubs in every state and in many countries around the world, and alumni societies connected with your colleges.

We celebrate you today and wholeheartedly share in your enthusiasm and all that you have achieved. Your success is driving Ohio State's move from excellence to eminence, and we will continue to count on you to carry on the university's rich and vibrant tradition and reputation. Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends, and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

Sincerely,

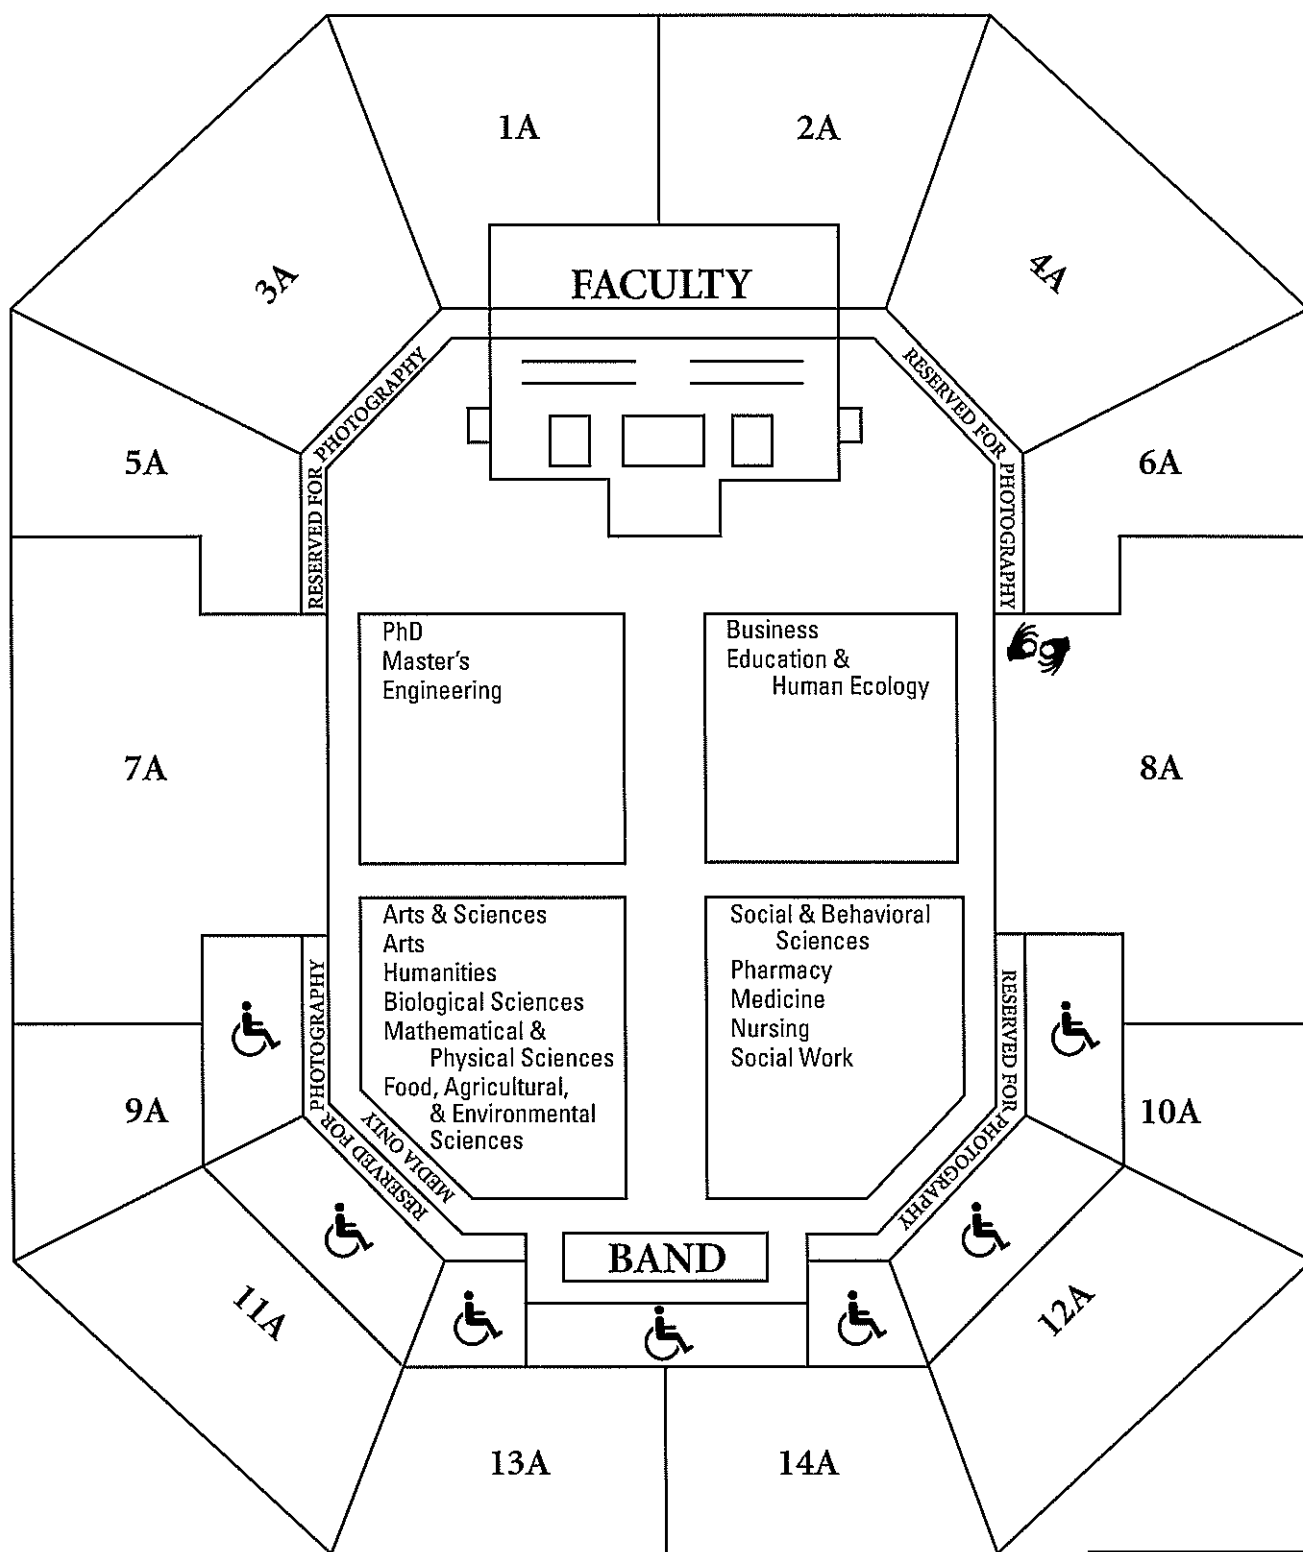

Yvette McGee Brown

This program is not an official graduation list.

This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Winter Quarter 2009, as of 5:00 p.m., March 13, 2009, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, 320 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

Graduates with Honors

Criteria for graduating with honors are listed below. Grade-point averages (GPA) are based on the student's penultimate quarter.

Summa Cum Laude designates those who earned a 3.9 GPA or better.

Magna Cum Laude designates those who earned a 3.7 GPA or better.

Cum Laude designates those who earned a 3.5 GPA or better.

With Honors in Business/Accounting requires successful completion of a prescribed honors program of study and graduation with a 3.5 GPA or better.

With Honors in Education and Human Ecology requires successful completion of an honors experience contract and graduation with a 3.4 GPA or better.

With Honors in Engineering requires successful completion of an honors experience contract and graduation with a 3.4 GPA or better.

With Honors in the Arts and Sciences requires successful completion of the Arts and Sciences Honors Contract and graduation with a 3.3 GPA or better (3.4 GPA for students who started the Honors program Autumn 2006 or later).

With Distinction requires successful completion of a Senior Honors Thesis and a 3.3 GPA or better.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencement derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD)	Gray
