

Applies to: Employees, students, contractual agents of the institution, parents of dependent students, individuals requesting access to student information.

Responsible Office

Office of the University Registrar

POLICY

Issued: 01/01/1974

Revised: 07/01/2015

The university is committed to protecting education records of students to the extent required by law.

Purpose of the Policy

To comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), as amended, which sets forth requirements designed to protect the privacy of student education records.

Definitions

Term	Definition
Custodian	Individual or unit that maintains any student-identifiable records.
Directory Information	Term defined under FERPA; which allows certain information about students to be published or released by the institution without consent of the student.
Education record(s)	A. The meaning of "education records" is, with certain exemptions as listed below, those records, files, documents, and other materials that contain information directly related to a student, and are maintained by any employee or contractual agent of the university. B. The following categories of information are exempted and are not considered to be "education records:" <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Records made by university personnel that are in the sole possession of the maker and are not routinely accessible or revealed to any other person. 2. Records created and maintained by the Office of Public Safety for law enforcement purposes. 3. Medical and counseling records used solely for treatment. (Medical records may be personally reviewed by a physician of the student's choice.) 4. Post-enrollment records related to a former student that do not pertain to an individual's previous attendance (alumni records). Records that pertain to an individual's previous attendance as a student, regardless of when they were created or received by the institution, are education records.
Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA)	Federal law governing access to records maintained by educational institutions and the release of information from those records. FERPA requires the institution to send a notice to enrolled students annually.

Policy Details

- I. Generally
 - A. All records pertaining to students that are maintained by units are official university records, and as such, remain the property of the university.
 - B. Each unit must keep, pursuant to the university Records Retention Schedule, a record of requests and disclosures of student record information except when the request is from the student, a university official with a legitimate educational interest, someone requesting directory information, or related to a request with consent from the student. Students have the right to review this record of requests and disclosures of student record information.

Applies to: Employees, students, contractual agents of the institution, parents of dependent students, individuals requesting access to student information.

II. Annual Notice

- A. The University Registrar provides students with an annual notice of rights with respect to their education records and a link to this policy.

III. Right to Inspect and Review

- A. Students are granted the right to inspect and review their education records, except the following:
 1. Financial records of parents.
 2. Confidential letters and statements of recommendations for admission, employment, or honorary recognition placed in education records after January 1, 1975, for which students have waived their right of access.

IV. Waiver of Access of Rights

- A. Students may waive their right of access to confidential letters and statements of recommendation. Even if the student signs a waiver, upon request, the names of all persons making confidential recommendations will be made available to the student.
- B. Employees or contractual agents of the university may not require a student to waive her or his right of access for receipt of university benefits or services.

V. Right to Challenge Information in Education Records

- A. Students have a right to challenge the content of their education records if they consider the information contained therein to be inaccurate, misleading, or inappropriate.
- B. This process includes an opportunity for amendment of the education records or insertion of written explanations by the student into such records.
- C. The right to challenge grades does not apply under FERPA unless the grade assigned was inaccurately recorded, under which condition the record will be corrected.

VI. Release Without Consent

- A. The university may release the following information without obtaining consent:
 1. Requests from faculty and staff of The Ohio State University who have a legitimate educational interest on a "need to know" basis, including student employees or contractual agents of the institution, if necessary to conduct official business, as authorized by the University Registrar. Legitimate educational interest includes performing a task related to the regular duties of the employee or contractual agent, the student's education, the discipline of a student, a service or benefit for the student, or maintaining safety and security of the campus.
 2. Requests in compliance with a lawful subpoena or judicial order.
 3. Requests in connection with a student's application for or receipt of financial aid.
 4. Requests by parents of a dependent student, as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.
 5. In the case of emergencies, the university may release information from education records to appropriate persons in connection with an emergency, if the knowledge of such information is necessary to protect the health or safety of a student or other persons.
 6. The results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the university against an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence to the alleged victim of that crime.
 7. Requests by state authorities and agencies specifically exempted from the prior consent requirements by FERPA.
 8. To authorized federal officials who have need to audit and evaluate federally-supported programs.
 9. Information submitted to accrediting organizations.

Applies to: Employees, students, contractual agents of the institution, parents of dependent students, individuals requesting access to student information.

10. Organizations conducting studies on behalf of the university, if such studies do not permit the personal identification of students to any persons other than to representatives of such organizations and if the personal identification data is destroyed when no longer needed.

11. Requests for directory information (see Directory Information).

B. The university reserves the right to verify the accuracy of any information contained in what purports to be an official university document (e.g., a transcript or diploma) or information that is provided to a third party.

C. Degrees (any honors, majors, minors, and specializations) are considered public information since they are conferred in a public ceremony and may be released without consent.

VII. Consent for Release Required

A. In all other circumstances, the university may release certain information from an education record only with consent.

B. Unless covered under Release Without Consent, consent must be obtained from students for the release of information from education records, specifying what is to be released, the reasons for release, and to whom, with a copy of the record sent to the student if she or he desires. See Consent for Release under Procedures.

VIII. Directory Information

A. FERPA requires the university to designate which information about students will be considered directory information. Directory information may be published and/or released without consent.

B. The Ohio State University has designated the following information about students as public (directory) information:

1. Name
2. Permanent address (does not include home/local, physical, or dorm address)
3. Official university email address
4. Home telephone (does not include dorm or cell phone)
5. Program of study (including college of enrollment, major, and campus)
6. Enrollment status (e.g., full-time, part-time, withdrawn)
7. Dates of attendance
8. Names of honors awarded (e.g., Latin honors, dean's list, scholarships-with the amount excluded)
9. Previous educational agencies or institutions attended
10. Participation in officially recognized activities and sports
11. Weight and height of members of intercollegiate athletic teams

C. The university publishes student directory information on the web via Find People. Student directory information on the web contains name, email address, major, and college.

D. Students have the right to have this directory information withheld from the public if they so desire. Each student who wants all directory information to be withheld (including items to be published in the online "Find People") must notify the University Registrar by following Withholding Directory Information under Procedures.

E. The university receives many inquiries for directory information from a variety of sources, including friends, parents, relatives, prospective employers, other institutions of higher education, honor societies, licensing agencies, government agencies, and the news media.

1. Each student is advised to carefully consider the consequences of a decision to withhold directory information.
2. The university, in all good faith, will not release directory information requested to be withheld, and any requests from persons or organizations outside the university will be refused unless the student provides written consent for the release.

Applies to: Employees, students, contractual agents of the institution, parents of dependent students, individuals requesting access to student information.

IX. Accountability

- A. It is the responsibility of all faculty, staff, student employees, students, and contractual agents of the university to be informed of and follow the requirements under FERPA to protect student information.
- B. Employees who violate this policy may be subject to disciplinary action, including and not limited to termination of employment and/or potential criminal prosecution under applicable federal, state, and local laws.
- C. Students who violate this policy are subject to disciplinary action under the Code of Student Conduct and/or potential criminal prosecution under applicable federal, state, and local laws.
- D. Other individuals and entities to whom this policy applies who violate this policy are subject to appropriate sanctions, including and not limited to termination of the relationship and/or potential criminal prosecution under applicable federal, state, and local laws.

PROCEDURE

Issued: 01/01/1974

Revised: 07/01/2015

I. Annual Notice to Students

- A. The annual notice is sent from the University Registrar to enrolled students at the start of each autumn semester to explain the rights of students with respect to records maintained by the university.
- B. The notice also outlines the university's procedures to comply with the requirements of FERPA.
- C. Copies of FERPA, the federal regulations adopted pursuant to it, and the annual notice are available for persons to examine in the Office of the University Registrar, 281 W. Lane Ave., Columbus, OH 43210-1230.

II. Student Inspection and Review of Education Records

- A. Student requests to review education records must be made separately, in writing, to each unit maintaining records. Each unit must respond to requests to review and inspect as soon as possible and no later than 45 days.
- B. Information contained in education records will be fully explained and interpreted to students by university personnel assigned to, and designated by, the appropriate unit.
- C. Students have the right to review only their own education records. When a record contains information about more than one student, disclosure cannot include information regarding the other student(s).

III. Hearing to Challenge Record

- A. Students challenging information in their education records must submit, in writing, a request for a hearing to the appropriate unit maintaining the record, listing the specific information in question and the reasons for the challenge.
- B. Hearings will be conducted by an impartial university official, serving as the hearing officer, who does not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing.
- C. Students will be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the reasons for the challenge, as referenced in Right to Challenge Information in Education Records in Policy Details.
- D. The hearing officer will render a decision, in writing, noting the reason and summarizing all evidence presented within a reasonable period of time after the challenge is filed.
- E. Should the hearing be in favor of the student, the record will be amended accordingly. Should the request be denied, an appeal may be made, in writing, and submitted to the University Registrar within 10 days of the student's notification of the decision of the hearing officer. The appeal will be heard by an appeals board of three impartial senior university officials and a decision rendered, in writing, within a reasonable period of time.
- F. Should the appeal be in favor of the student, the record will be amended accordingly. Should the request be denied, the student may choose to place a statement with the record commenting on the accuracy of the information in the record and/or setting forth any basis for inaccuracy. When disclosed to an authorized party, the record will always include the student's statement and notice of the board's decision, as long as the student's record is maintained by the university.

Applies to: Employees, students, contractual agents of the institution, parents of dependent students, individuals requesting access to student information.

- IV. Complaints, Concerns or Suggestions
 - A. Any student who has reason to believe that the university is not complying with FERPA or this policy should inform the University Registrar in writing.
 - B. The University Registrar will promptly review all such allegations.
 - C. The university governance group overseeing implementation of this policy is the University Senate Council on Enrollment and Student Progress.
- V. Training
 - A. All employees should seek out the appropriate university-provided FERPA training based on their role.
 - 1. Online training is available to the university community.
 - 2. Additional information and training may be requested by contacting the University Registrar.
- VI. Handling Requests for Release of Education Records
 - A. When faculty, staff, student employees, or contractual agents of the university receive a request for information contained in an education record, they must follow the procedures contained in this policy and the FERPA training.
 - 1. Only requests for information listed in Release Without Consent in Policy Details may be released without consent.
 - 2. All other requests for information may only be released with consent by following Granting and/or Obtaining Consent for Release.
 - B. All questions about handling requests for release of education records should be referred to the University Registrar.
- VII. Granting and/or Obtaining Consent for Release
 - A. When the release of information in an education record requires student consent, the student must complete the Authorization to Release Information and return the completed form to the University Registrar.
- VIII. Withholding Directory Information
 - A. Students requesting to withhold directory information must so indicate to the University Registrar by completing a request to withhold release of directory information available from the Student Center in Buckeye Link.
 - B. At least 10 days should be allowed for processing of these requests.
- IX. Maintaining and Disposing of Education Records
 - A. Student education records must be maintained and stored according to the Institutional Data policy.
 - B. Student education records must be retained and destroyed according to the university Records Retention Schedule.
- X. Type, Location, and Custodian of Student Education Records
 - A. The Ohio State University does not maintain education records in one central office. Education records are maintained in the respective colleges and schools (including their placement offices), the Graduate School and graduate departments, each extended campus office (for extended campus students), and the University Registrar. Other education records are maintained in the Office of Admissions (for enrolled and former students; applicants are excluded), Office of Student Life (disciplinary records), Office of Student Financial Aid (financial and related information, student employment), Athletic Department (intercollegiate sports), Office of International Affairs, Office of Academic Affairs (academic misconduct), and other offices.
 - B. Questions regarding individual student records, including access to them, should be directed to the appropriate location. See list below.

Applies to: Employees, students, contractual agents of the institution, parents of dependent students, individuals requesting access to student information.
