POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

(Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)
—by Professor David Chino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate

If you’re like me, you’ve got a big head,
not to mention a funny bone, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes
we move to, shower and shave by.
study, write to. Not just the incidental,
but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho’s honeyed love lyrics. Often,
music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodopio in Puccini’s La Bohème, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year
or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.
I’ll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond
in the sky. We know from this start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents
of Cleveland. Gustaveus Ignatius, Jevanes dum names. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can’t comprehend while we’re young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.
Don’t let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts.
of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop
of a hat, to care for, to moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades,
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (please of what, fried chicken sandwiches?)
who stole away her round dog. You ain’t never killed a rabbit, you ain’t no friend of mine. As with those pros and TAs, coarse after course, you had to produce—
kill some rabbits to gain respect.
And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford “Sixteen Tons.” St. Peter don’t you call me ‘Cause I can’t go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious one
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modignao’s
fervent urging to wish, sing, fly.
Vivere, Vi-vii, Cantare, Wo-oo-a.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it’s the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I’m a lucky son of a gun.
I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours.
That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hoy! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years
for the B&O Railroad, before laying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today come from elsewhere,
or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even President Kennedy, the wails of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage
it took to pick up stones and begin again.
In a new world! Think of the work those elated ones did. For you, too all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You’re bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State
Is the ark on which you’ve been sailing.
You’ve been the precious cargo.
But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the moh is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing
with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows define the words

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, on Monday, May 5, at 5 p.m.
Chris Matthews
DOCTOR OF COMMUNICATION

A television news anchor with remarkable depth of experience, Chris Matthews has distinguished himself as a broadcaster, newspaper bureau chief, presidential speechwriter, Capitol Hill chief of staff and bestselling author during his long career.

Mr. Matthews began his professional life in public service, working in the U.S. Senate for five years for Sen. Frank Moss of Utah and Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine; in the White House for four years under President Jimmy Carter as a speechwriter and on the President’s Reorganization Project; and for six years as top aide to legendary Speaker of the House Thomas “Tip” O’Neill Jr. After cutting his teeth in politics, Mr. Matthews turned to journalism.

From 1987 to 2000, he served as Washington, D.C., bureau chief for the San Francisco Examiner, followed by a two-year term as a nationally syndicated columnist for the San Francisco Chronicle. During his time as a reporter, Mr. Matthews covered many important historic events of the late 20th century, including the fall of the Berlin Wall and the first all-races election ever held in South Africa. In 1994, he began his television career on the NBC-owned America’s Talking network before launching his popular show, “Hardball with Chris Matthews,” three years later on MSNBC.

Mr. Matthews has received the David Brinkley Award for Excellence in Broadcast Journalism and the Gold Medal Award for Distinguished Achievement from the Pennsylvania Society. He is the author of multiple bestselling books, including Hardball: How Politics is Played, Told by One Who Knows the Game; Kennedy & Nixon: The Rivalry that Shaped Postwar America; Jack Kennedy: Elusive Hero; and Tip and The Gipper: When Politics Worked.

A graduate of Holy Cross College, Mr. Matthews did graduate work in economics at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He worked for two years as a trade development advisor with the U.S. Peace Corps in the southern African nation of Swaziland.

Barry R. Bloom
DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

For the past half century, Barry Bloom of Cambridge, Massachusetts, has been a pioneer in the field of global health. After receiving his bachelor’s degree in biology from Amherst College and his PhD in immunology from Rockefeller University, Dr. Bloom established himself as one of the world’s pre-eminent scientists in the areas of infectious diseases, vaccines and health policy.

His exceptional body of research—primarily focused on immunology and the pathogenesis of leprosy and tuberculosis—has shown an enduring commitment to the application of cutting-edge science to alleviate the infectious disease burden of the developing world. Through his impressive work, Dr. Bloom has improved vaccine approaches for tuberculosis and discovered crucial breakthroughs in how immune responses protect against microbial threats. He has published more than 350 articles and continues to provide commentary on current public health concerns ranging from TB to HIV to obesity.

His fundamental contributions have made him a trusted public health policy advisor. He served as an advisor to the White House on International Health Policy, and for more than 40 years, he has been extensively involved with the World Health Organization, where he chaired the Research Advisory Committees on Leprosy, Tuberculosis, Malaria and Tropical Diseases.

He also has been a member of the WHO Advisory Committee on Health Research.

Dr. Bloom has received many honors for his lifelong dedication to infectious disease research and education, including the first Bristol-Myers Squibb Award for Distinguished Research in Infectious Diseases and the Robert Koch Gold Medal for lifetime research in infectious diseases. He is a member of the National Academy of Sciences, the Institute of Medicine, and the American Philosophical Society. He is currently a Distinguished Service Professor and Joan L. and Julius H. Jacobson Professor of Public Health at Harvard University, where he served as dean of the School of Public Health from 1999 to 2008.
John B. Gerlach Jr.
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

John B. "Jay" Gerlach Jr. of Columbus, Ohio, has been an engaged and dedicated supporter of The Ohio State University since his graduation more than three decades ago. After receiving his bachelor’s degree in business administration from Ohio State, Mr. Gerlach upheld his family’s legacy of philanthropy and public service while serving in various capacities at Lancaster Colony Corporation, a specialty foods manufacturer and marketer founded in 1961 by his father and grandfather.

Mr. Gerlach’s service history is diverse and robust. In 1997, the same year he was named chair and CEO of Lancaster Colony Corp., he also was elected to the University Foundation board of directors, where he served as board chair from 2009 to 2013. He currently serves as a board member for Huntington Bancshares, Nationwide Children’s Hospital and the Recreation Unlimited Foundation. He has been chair of the Richard M. Ross Heart Hospital board since 2004, and for almost two decades, he has served on the Dean’s Advisory Council at Fisher College of Business.

Nearly every year since 1979, Mr. Gerlach and his family have supported a variety of initiatives, from scholarships and building projects to medical, polar and wetlands research. They contributed generously to Fisher and The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center, supporting the medical center expansion and the creation of Fisher’s state-of-the-art business campus. Mr. Gerlach and his wife, Aleusha, also have provided charitable backing of the medical center’s Neurosciences Program, which has enabled physicians and scholars to embark on innovative research to improve patients’ lives.

By giving of his time and resources, Mr. Gerlach has helped shape the future of Ohio State, and he has strengthened the university’s relationship with the Columbus corporate community. As a natural ambassador for the university, he has championed the Ohio Scholarship Challenge, and served on multiple committees supporting Ohio State’s Affirm Thy Friendship and But for Ohio State campaigns.

Mac A. Stewart

Though Mac A. Stewart retired in 2010, his visionary leadership at The Ohio State University left a lasting impression on the entire community. As a much-admired administrator, scholar and mentor, Dr. Stewart dedicated his 40-year career at Ohio State to improving the delivery of educational services for socioeconomically deprived and culturally different students.

Dr. Stewart joined Ohio State as a residence hall director and doctoral student in the early 1970s. After earning his doctorate in higher education administration, he became assistant dean of University College, where he spent 27 years and ultimately served as dean. During his tenure, he developed programs to recruit and retain a diverse student body. While serving as vice provost for Minority Affairs and special assistant to the president for diversity, he was instrumental in the creation of the acclaimed Todd A. Bell National Resource Center on the African American Male.

An icon of service, Dr. Stewart served on more than 30 committees at Ohio State, including two presidential search committees, University Senate and the Council of Deans. He also served on external evaluation teams for various higher education institutions, and on numerous boards, such as the Buckeye Boys Ranch, Columbus Academy, Mount Carmel College of Nursing, Nationwide Children’s Hospital and the International Foundation for Education and Self-Help.

Dr. Stewart has received many honors, notably the Josephine Sitterle Falter Award from Ohio State’s Alumni Association and the Frederick Patterson Award from the Greater Columbus United Negro Fund. As a faculty member in the College of Education and Human Ecology, he published widely in a variety of professional journals. In 1983, he was selected as a member of the editorial board of The Negro Educational Review, where he also served as chair of the editorial board and editor-in-chief.

A practicing psychologist for decades, Dr. Stewart received a bachelor’s degree in sociology from Morehouse College and a master’s degree in counseling from Atlanta University.
Dear Graduates:

Today’s commencement ceremony serves to recognize your achievement, which is certainly no small feat. I know that the thousands of family members, friends and fellow graduates who have gathered here today would agree.

It is always a wonderful day to be a Buckeye but today is extra special. Armed with this new knowledge, you join a proud network of Ohio State alumni working as leaders in our communities, throughout our nation and around the world.

It is important to remember that there are countless pathways to any destination, each with its own benefits. What you achieve along the way opens new doors to even more opportunities. So as you count down to receiving your diploma, consider this: As an Ohio State graduate, what will you accomplish first?

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Alutto

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

- Graduate School (PhD): Gray
- Others: Black

INCLEMENT WEATHER

In the case of inclement weather, every effort will be made to hold commencement as planned. Commencement will take place in Ohio Stadium, unless weather conditions are dangerous or severe, in which case the ceremony will be canceled. No indoor facility on campus can accommodate the graduating class and their guests.

On commencement day, Ohio State officials will be in continuous contact with the National Weather Service to monitor approaching weather. If it is feasible to delay the start of the ceremony and wait for clearing or less severe weather, the start of the ceremony may be delayed up to one hour. Should this happen, any changes will be announced on-site to graduates and guests. Graduates will remain in the assembly locations; guests are asked to remain in protected areas of Ohio Stadium. Your patience and cooperation will help facilitate this plan.

In case of cancellation

If it is determined that severe weather will not permit us to hold commencement, the ceremony will be canceled. Once cancellation has been announced, graduates should report to the following locations one hour after cancellation to receive their diplomas.

It is strongly advised that graduates and guests prearrange a meeting place in case the ceremony is canceled. Guests should not go to French Field House or RPAC where most diplomas will be distributed to graduates. St. John Arena and various locations on West Lane Avenue are some suggested meeting sites.

Diplomas will remain in the following locations until 4 p.m. on commencement day. Diplomas not picked up by 4 p.m. will be taken to the Student Service Center (SSC) on the first floor of the Student Academic Services (SAS) building, 281 West Lane Avenue. Diplomas will be available for pick-up there between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., May 5-9. If a graduate's diploma remains unclaimed after May 9, it will be mailed to the permanent address on record within two to four weeks of commencement. Graduates can verify/change their mailing addresses by navigating to the BuckeyeLink website at buckeyelink.osu.edu. Click on "My Student Center," then scroll down to the "Personal Information" section to view the address. Click on the "Permanent Address" hyperlink if there is a need to edit it.

POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you’re sitting twenty-six years ago.
Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me
through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We’ve all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we’ll sing together, Beautiful Ohio.

In dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78’s and 33’s, tapes, CD’s—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run of the mill that, the moment thrumming
with pleasure or bathed in the blues.
We ache for something grander than pure selflessness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.
Ohio State University, Bicentennial.
We’ll do this down the field,
Men (and women) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,
and you searched our dark, ancient library
for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary’s, father marched in this first “Scrimmage,” in 1830. He’s been today with us, bowing his head. I can’t help but feel, as is the sweet mother
I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today’s music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here
were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.
When we sing to others, we honor
our fathers and mothers, thank them
for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. Ohio, let’s sing Ohio’s praise. And songs to Alma Mater too: Alma mater
Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it’s time we moved out, got a place of our own. You’re standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won’t forget you.
Now, even though this ceremony
means we’re being weaned, taken off the nipple, let’s take care to cherish her all our days. Let’s remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We’ll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer’s heat, and winter’s cold. The seasons pass,
the years will roll, Time and change
will surely show How firm thy friendship, O hi O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You’ve worked hard, she is your reward, today is your reward.

You’re filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we’ve written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves,
and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.
Graders, this joyful day, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us,
the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. Does, you know, it has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—
to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
Carmen Ohio

Oh! Come let’s sing Ohio’s praise,

And songs to Alma Mater raise;

While our hearts rebounding thrill,

With joy which death alone can still.

Summer’s heat or Winter’s cold,

The seasons pass, the years will roll;

Time and change will surely show

How firm thy friendship—Ohio.
