Pomp, circumstance, and other songs of a lifetime

by Professor David Citino, 1947–2005, Late University Poet Laureate

(Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you’re like me, you’ve got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho’s honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini’s La Bohème. Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Ohe cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write.

This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school? In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I’ll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like honeyed love lyrics. Often, words. I’ll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like honeyed love lyrics. Often, words. I’ll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio
Graduates and guests led by Daniel C. Stein

   Oh! Come let’s sing Ohio’s praise,
   And songs to Alma Mater raise;
   While our hearts rebounding thrill,
   With joy which death alone can still.
   Summer’s heat or winter’s cold,
   The seasons pass, the years will roll;
   Time and change will surely show
   How firm thy friendship—O-hi-o!

A world-renowned soil scientist, educator and Buckeye alumnus, Dr. Rattan Lal has served as an Ohio State faculty member for more than 30 years. He has mentored over 170 graduate students and postdoctoral research scientists, hosted 175 visiting scholars from around the world, and authored or contributed to 2,400 scholarly publications and presentations. These accomplishments, in addition to his roles as Distinguished University Professor of Soil Science and director of Ohio State’s Carbon Management and Sequestration Center, rank him among the university’s preeminent creative leaders.

Listed by Thomson Reuters as one of the world’s most influential scientific minds, Dr. Lal studies sustainable soil management and its ability to improve global food security and mitigate climate change. Highlights of his five-decade career include helping to identify methods to sequester, or lock up, atmospheric carbon dioxide in soil and contributing to reports of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, which was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 2007.

For his commitment and global impact, Dr. Lal won the 2019 Japan Prize, one of the most prestigious honors awarded in science and technology. He also received the 2018 World Agriculture Prize from the Global Confederation of Higher Education Associations for Agricultural and Life Sciences, and the 2018 Glinka World Soil Prize from the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization.

Dr. Lal has earned honorary degrees from six institutions in the United States, Europe and Asia, and he is a fellow of several professional research societies. He has also held prominent leadership positions with the Soil Science Society of America; International Union of Soil Sciences; Strategic Environmental Research and Development Program Scientific Advisory Board for the U.S. Department of Defense; and Scientific Advisory Committee of the United Nations University Institute for Integrated Management of Material Fluxes and of Resources.

He is a current member of the Science Policy Interface of the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification and an adjunct professor at the University of Iceland.
Richard “Rich” Hollingsworth was an exemplary and passionate leader at The Ohio State University. His devotion to enhancing the student experience and promoting leadership development led to the creation of several university-wide initiatives, all of which engage and empower Buckeyes to this day.

Mr. Hollingsworth first joined Ohio State as an undergraduate student nearly 50 years ago. He graduated with a bachelor’s degree in social sciences education before earning his law degree at Capital University. He later rejoined the Ohio State community and served as dean and vice president of Student Life as well as a professor, advisor and mentor for countless individuals.

As a former director of the Graduate Training Program in Social Psychology, Dr. Weary mentored and championed her students. She served enthusiastically on thesis committees and fostered academic success, broadly. She received the university’s Distinguished Scholar Award in 1984 and the Distinguished Lecturer Award in 2000.

Dr. Weary retired as dean of Social and Behavioral Sciences in the College of Arts and Sciences in 2014. Today, she is professor emeritus of psychology and a member of The Ohio State University Foundation Board of Directors, for which she chairs the Directorship and Nominating Committee. Her connection with students remains central to her efforts as she further integrates their voices and experiences into the board’s outreach and decision making.

Dr. Weary and her husband, David Angelo, are generous supporters of the university. Through an endowment from the Weary Family Foundation, they established the Robert K. and Dale J. Weary Chair to recruit world-renowned social psychologist Dr. Steven Spencer to Ohio State. A dedicated member of the prestigious Oval Society, Dr. Weary also supports Women & Philanthropy to advance the university’s impact on individuals and organizations vital to Buckeye Nation.
Dear Graduates:

Congratulations! Few milestones are more significant — and few accomplishments more valuable — than earning the diploma you will receive today. You should be deeply proud of all you have achieved and grateful for those who helped you reach this moment.

As you prepare for your next step, know that you join an incredible legacy of leadership, innovation and discovery. For 150 years, Buckeye graduates have been a force for good in communities across our state and around the world. They have advanced science and medicine, enriched the arts, elevated young minds and even explored the stars. Let their examples guide you throughout your future and, when necessary, encourage you to forge your own path ahead.

The stories of our alumni — including the one you are just beginning to write — exemplify the breadth and depth of our university’s unparalleled impact. Ohio State was founded in 1870 to create and share knowledge that changes lives and advances society. A century and a half later, we remain dedicated to solving challenges at home and around the world, and to connecting lives in deeply personal and meaningful ways.

This same spirit is reflected in you and your fellow graduates. Through your education, you have established a foundation for excellence and cultivated lifelong relationships that will endure through time and change. I also hope your experiences have inspired you to dream big and do good. Generations of Ohio State alumni have changed our world for the better, and I know you will, too. Congratulations on becoming a Buckeye for life.

Sincerely,

Michael V. Drake, MD
President
Congratulations, and welcome to the Buckeye alumni family, Class of 2019!

We are pleased to celebrate you during a very special time for our entire Ohio State community, the 150th anniversary year of our university’s founding.

During our sesquicentennial, as we look back on the last century and a half of our collective history, we are proudly honoring the past by shining a light on the Buckeyes who came before you, and we have awarded scholarships to 150 deserving students who will follow in your footsteps. While paying tribute to our beloved traditions, your accomplishment today at commencement is a turning point, as we look ahead to the next 150 years of Ohio State’s story, which you will help write.

This is just the first of many times you will make your extended Buckeye alumni family proud. Each milestone on your journey, and every life you touch along the way, brings credit to our university and your fellow alumni. One Buckeye’s success is shared by all.

Take time to recognize the people who have supported you, including those at Ohio State who expanded your view of the world while preparing you to go out into it. Find comfort in knowing that Buckeyes will be wherever you go. You’ll discover alumni clubs and societies in more than 100 cities, organizing everything from game-watch parties to scholarship fundraisers.

Whether we are coming to you with one of our regional gatherings or inviting you to come home to campus, your alumni association has many ways to keep you connected to your alma mater. As you start on your career path, or later down the road, consult the association’s Bill and Susan Lhota Office of Alumni Career Management. And, because Buckeyes are passionate about paying forward in service to others, we offer several volunteer opportunities.

Ours is a diverse, vibrant and compassionate community, and the alumni association is at the very heart of it. Your alumni association exists to continue inspiring you to be an engaged citizen, forever upholding our university motto: “Education for Citizenship.”

Now, as a Buckeye for life with your diploma in hand, you are officially a member of the Ohio State Alumni Association. Visit osu.edu/alumni to learn more about the benefits available to you.

Again, congratulations on this great achievement. There will surely be many more to follow — you are an Ohio State graduate, after all!

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably resulted in the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation’s English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar’s book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master’s degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

- Graduate School (PhD): Gray
- (Others): Black
- College of Arts and Sciences
  - BA: White
  - BA Journalism: Crimson
  - BAE, BFA: Brown
  - BM, BME: Pink
  - BS, BS Design, BS Atmos.Sci., BS Geog.Info.Sci.: White
  - Fisher College of Business: Drab
  - College of Dentistry: Lilac
  - College of Education and Human Ecology
    - Education: Light Blue

  - College of Engineering: Orange
  - Knowlton School of Architecture: Blue-Violet
  - College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences: Maize
  - School of Environment and Natural Resources: Blue-Green
  - Moritz College of Law: Purple
  - College of Medicine: Green
  - School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences: Green
  - College of Nursing: Apricot
  - College of Optometry: Seafoam Green
  - College of Pharmacy: Olive Green
  - John Glenn College of Public Affairs: Peacock Blue
  - College of Public Health: Salmon
  - College of Social Work: Citron
  - College of Veterinary Medicine: Gray

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and university administrative officers.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

*Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Photographs may be taken from the stands at any time during the ceremony. However, only press photographers are permitted on the arena floor. Guests are asked to be courteous and respectful of all those wishing to take photographs.

Pomp, circumstance, and other songs of a lifetime

by Professor David Citino, 1947–2005, Late University Poet Laureate
(Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you’re like me, you’ve got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho’s honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpino in Puccini’s La Bohème. Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school in my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I’ll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was slobber with wonder. Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gasdeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can’t comprehend while we’re young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you are here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us, here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You’re bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you’ve been sailing. You’ve been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word. I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you’re sitting twenty-six years ago. Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles! My son earned an OSU Ph.D. In history. Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We’ve all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio. Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we’ll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78’s and 33 1/3’s, tapes, CD’s—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrash, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bashed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckley Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field, Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary’s, father marched in the first “Script Ohio,” in 1936. He’s here today with us, blowing his horn, I can’t help feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars.

Today’s music makes us think of the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We’ll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer’s heat, and winter’s cold, The seasons pass, and winter’s cold, The seasons pass, and pass them on. We’ll remember.

You’ve worked hard; she is your reward; the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You’ve worked hard, she is your reward, today is your reward. You’re filled to overflowing with the words, the poems we’ve written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly, let’s take care to cherish her all our days. Let’s remember we’re being weaned, taken off the nipple, for the years to come, we’re being weaned, taken off the nipple, for the years to come, the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English.
